Gen. Ike Asks Gen. DeGaulle To Retreat in NATO Dispute

20 Underworld Figures Indicted

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal court jury Friday convicted 20 delegates to the 1957 Apalachin underworld convention of conspiracy to hide the real purpose of the convolve.

The conviction was hailed by Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers as "a landmark in the government's fight against organized crime and racketeers."

The verdict was returned by a jury of eight men and four women after more than 15 hours of deliberation to climax the 53-day trial. Some of the well-dressed defendants slumped in their seats, several sobbed. One moaned in Italian: "I'm innocent."

Judge Irving R. Kaufman commended the jury for its "intelligent verdict." He set Jan 14 for sentencing. Each of the convicted men could get up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

"You deserve the thanks of the community and the nation by your patience in sitting through this trial," Judge Kaufman told the jury. "This will show the country that grand juries and other federal agencies cannot be defied or sneered at by people who consider themselves above and beyond the law."

The defendants had explained the meeting of more than 60 underworld figures Nov. 14, 1957, at the Apalachin, N.Y., hillside estate of the late Joseph Barbara Sr. as a visit to a sick friend or a social affair. Some said they were there because they had auto trouble nearby.

Throughout the trial, the government conceded that it did not know the secret purpose of the meeting. However, Arthur L. Reuter, onetime acting commissioner of investigation, said in a report for former Gov. Averell Harriman that the convolve was believed to have been called to split up territories, divide proceeds and discuss extension of racketeering in labor unions.

From all over the country and even Cuba and Italy, the gangsters had converged on the mansion of Barbara, a 53-year-old beer and soft drink distributor who died of a heart attack last June. The meeting never got underway. State police began recording the license numbers of their expensive cars and a roadblock was set up at the entrance to the estate.

Many delegates scrambled into their cars and sped straight into the roadblock. Others fled on foot into the nearby woods. John C. Montana, 66, a usually dignified former Republican councilman in Buffalo and onetime man of the year there, was caught when he helplessly tangled himself in a barbed wire fence.

A few delegates got away, but the others were held for questioning. In the months following the raid, the delegates were interrogated by state and federal agencies. A result was the federal charge of conspiracy to give evasive and false answers.

55-Minute Parley Said 'Very Frank'

French Still Opposed To Integrating Arms With Western Allies

PARIS (AP)—President Eisenhower today urged French President Charles de Gaulle to give ground in his opposition to integrating France's military forces with those of its Western allies.

This was confirmed by authoritative sources after Eisenhower and De Gaulle met for 55 minutes following the opening session of a three-day Western summit meeting.

Eisenhower was reported to have supported Secretary of State Christian A. Herter. Herter earlier this week told the 15-nation NATO alliance ministerial meeting that an integrated European defense system was the basis on which the United States keeps troops on the Continent.

De Gaulle's reaction was not outlined. Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, however, described the De Gaulle-Eisenhower talks as "very frank and friendly." He said they might get together again this weekend.

Earlier, De Gaulle, Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer opened their summit meeting in general agreement that an East-West summit session should be held.

Their talks ranged over hopes for unifying Germany and the question of divided Berlin as well as East-West negotiations on nuclear disarmament.

The four leaders took up the drafting of specific negotiating proposals to be laid before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at an East-West summit meeting next year.

A working group of diplomats from the four nations is expected to be set up to polish these proposals and to iron out differences. In their meeting in De Gaulle's office, Eisenhower and the French President also took up Algeria, another sore point in relations between the two countries. France is unhappy because the United States abstained recently in the United Nations on a resolution—opposed by Paris—urging the French and Algerian rebels to negotiate.

France also feels the United States should have given stronger support to De Gaulle's plan to give Algeria the right of self-determination after peace is restored in that North African territory.

Later they took up a communique Eisenhower signed in Tunis on his visit to Tunisia two days ago. In the communique Eisenhower and Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba agreed the continued nationalist rebellion against France in Algeria constitutes a disturbing element in the world situation. The French consider this was stepping on their toes on an issue which they regard as their own affair.

The main issue between the two leaders, however, is the French attitude within the NATO alliance. De Gaulle opposes the incorporation of French forces in NATO. Eisenhower is the obvious spokesman for the 14 NATO allies of France, all of whom are in favor of defense integration.

Eisenhower and De Gaulle started their private meeting after two hours and 12 minutes of four-power conversations at Elysee Palace, which included Adenauer and Macmillan.

The four resume their talks this afternoon, accompanied by their foreign ministers who met separately this morning.

Adenauer, returning to his hotel for a brief rest, told newsmen he was satisfied with the progress of the opening session. He would give no details.

Symington Campaign Launched in Missouri

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—A drive to promote Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) for the Democratic presidential nomination was launched Friday by the Missouri State Democratic Committee.

Members were asked to seek support from national party leaders and potential convention delegates, and to volunteer for personal tours into other states in Symington's behalf.

Police Capture Burglary Suspect

Two alert Circleville Policemen nipped an alleged burglary attempt in their own backyard last night.

Charles V. (Jack) Lutz, 18, of 624 S. Scioto St., was apprehended inside the Easterday Sohlo Service Station, at 2 a. m. The station is at Court and Franklin Sts., adjacent to police headquarters.

The keen eye of Patrolman William Goff spotted a moving shadow inside the service station for an instant. Within a matter of minutes Lutz was in custody through the efforts of Goff and Patrolman Richard Blaney.

Blaney and Goff said Lutz admitted the entry. He had $14 in change in his pocket. The officers said charges will be filed following a conference today with County Prosecutor Ray Davis.

According to patrolmen, the apprehension climaxed an investigation on Lutz which started here November 1. On that date the accused youth reported that $84.84 was taken from his mother at their S. Scioto St. residence.

Officers did not buy the story and an investigation was started. Lutz told officers that he believed his mother's money was taken by certain southend juveniles. Police said they are keeping this investigation under study.

Patrolman Goff spotted Lutz in the station while he and Blaney were checking out an intoxicated man last night at Court and Franklin Sts.

Goff said he noticed a moving shadow through the station glass. He and Blaney quickly covered the building. The patrolmen said they recognized the youth and ordered him out of the building. He came out a rear door and surrendered, the officers said. Sgt. Robert Temple and Patrolman Wesley Barton rushed across the street to aid in the apprehension.

During the interrogation at police headquarters, Lutz told officers that he eered the service station with a key he had taken from the firm last week. He said he removed the key from a desk while on a frequent visit to the station. Goff and Blaney said he once worked at the firm.

According to the officers, nothing other than the cash register was disturbed. They said Lutz admitted taking the $14. They said he left about $25 in change in the register, probably hoping that the $14 would not be missed.

The accused youth, who will be 19 December 24, is being held for further investigation and filing of charges.

John Teets Judged Insane, Sent To Lima State Hospital

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today committed John Wesley Teets, 47, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, to the Lima State Hospital.

Teets was indicted by the September term of the County Grand Jury for second degree murder. He was charged with the shotgun slaying of his wife, Frances, 33, on September 6.

He was committed to the Lima mental institution for the criminal insane for observation after pleading not guilty to the murder count.

He recently was returned from the hospital by County Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff where he was ruled insane by hospital doctors.

Hell Hath No Fury like Whipped Wife

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—You can't make a woman testify against her husband—but who can stop her from telling a policeman what she knows?

Petty Foster, 29, called police, contending her husband, Benjamin, had whipped her. When Patrolmen R. L. Walters and George Morgan knocked on her door, they said she appeared to have been "roughed up" and invited them in. "Go in the bedroom," she said. "Move the bed."

The puzzled officers complied. "Now pull up the linoleum," she ordered.

Walters and Morgan found a sign sunk in the floor that cautioned, "speed limit 25 m.p.h." "Pull up the sign," said Mrs. Foster.

Under the sign, the officers found a cache of 13 half-gallon fruit jars—filled with moonshine whiskey.

Foster appeared voluntarily at police headquarters on a charge of illegal possession of moonshine and gave bond of $1,000 for a court appearance Dec. 31.

1960 Wheat Crop To Top '59 Yield

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today forecast next year's winter wheat crop at 925,773,000 bushels.

This estimate is 2,324,000 bushels more than the 1959 winter wheat crop of 923,449,000 bushels. It compares with the 10-year (1949-58) average of 833,697,000 bushels.

Winter wheat makes up about three-fourths of the entire wheat crop. No forecast was given for spring wheat, which will not be planted until next spring.

But assuming an average spring wheat crop of 260,000,000 bushels, total wheat production next year would be 1,185,773,000 bushels compared with 1,128,151,000 for 1959 and 1,075,391,000 for the 10-year average.

U.S. Economy Now Showing More Bounce

Personal Income Hits All-Time Peak; Auto, Steel Output Booming

NEW YORK (AP)—The American economy showed its bounce this week.

There was ample evidence that it has shaken off the heaviest effects of the long steel strike.

These were major indicators: 1. The Commerce Department reported personal income hit an all-time peak in November.

2. Automobile production soared to a two-year high.

3. Steel output rocketed along at a record rate.

Americans' income climbed to a rate of nearly 385 billion dollars a year. This was a billion dollars higher than the previous peak annual rate attained in prestrike June.

The returning steelworkers' 245-billion-dollar contribution to the income total in November was partially offset by loss of two billions in wages in steel-short industries. But there was a 750-million-dollar increase in unemployment compensation checks and other government payments, and smaller gains in several nonmanufacturing industries, in state and local payrolls, in farm earnings and in income from dividends and interest.

The auto industry prodded its production to around 150,000 passenger cars, compared with 85,566 last week. In the corresponding week of 1958 the output was 135,961.

Steel production this week was estimated at a fraction lower than last week's record of 2,732,000 tons. Virtually all steel products are sold out for the first half of 1960.

On the New York Stock Exchange, trading amounted to 16,093,722 shares compared with 17,001,394 the previous week and 18,656,430 a year ago. Bond sales amounted to $33,410,000 par value compared with $36,164,000 last week and $34,850,000 a year ago.

Retail trade gained up to 4 per cent over the strong level of last year's Christmas buying. Members of a Russian delegation inspecting a big chain's clothing distribution plant in New York City were startled at the low retail prices on garment tags. "Is this rigged?" they asked. They were assured the prices had not been adjusted to impress the visitors.

The Department of Agriculture reported crop production this year will match the record output of 1958. It will meet all expected needs and add to surplus supplies, particularly grains, the department said.

Last Civil War Vet Not Getting Any Better

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Aged Confederate veteran Walter Williams remained on the critical list and "he's not going to get any better," a relative said Friday night.

Another American Faces Sentence in Cuban Prison

HAVANA (AP)—Another U.S. citizen faced a long prison sentence for alleged counter-revolutionary activities and two condemned enemies of Fidel Castro's regime were ordered before a firing squad today.

John V. Martino, an ailing Miami, Fla., businessman accused of serving as a link between anti-Castro forces in Cuba and Florida, was handed a 13-year sentence yesterday. The prosecution had asked for a 20-year term.

Martino, 49, joins two other Americans convicted by revived military tribunals within the past months—pilot - Adventurer Frank Austin Young, sentenced to 30 years; and Peter John Lambton of Nassau, Bahamas, given 25 years.

A fourth American, Miami Herald reporter James Buchanan, is being held for trial on charges of aiding Young in his brief escape from a Pinar del Rio prison last week.

Two Americans arrested last week when they came to Havana to join the Caribbean Legion were released Friday night. Military intelligence headquarters said the two—Edwin R. Eckersley, 26, of Portland, Ore., and Monty Mulph, 21, of Eden, Idaho—boarded a plane for Miami. The Legion is a loosely organized group of adventurers with the announced objective of overthrowing dictators.

Scheduled for execution today were two former soldiers of ex-President Fulgencio Batista, Luis Lara and Jose Morfi. They were convicted of plotting a military uprising against Prime Minister Castro's government.

Martino was convicted of attempting to smuggle the wife of a former Batista army officer, Col. Esteban Ventura, out of Cuba and of carrying a bond of the White Rose Society, a counter-revolutionary group operating in the United States.

Martino was arrested an hour after his arrival in Havana July 23 and has been under prison hospital treatment since for a kidney stone condition.

New Allied Difficulties Seen in West Berlin Case

PARIS (AP)—New Allied difficulties on Berlin were reported developing today as the Western Big Four assembled for policy talks.

Sources emphasized that the differences have not yet crystallized—especially since the American position has not been worked out. Allied leaders count on at least several months grace to work out a policy on the divided city before meeting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit sometime next year.

The United States has raised the question—without taking a specific stand—whether the Allies should be ready, if pushed by Khrushchev, to negotiate a new status for Berlin.

In any case the Americans hold that existing Western rights in West Berlin, surrounded by Communist East German territory, must remain intact.

Britain is known to favor a stopgap deal for Berlin pending a final German peace settlement.

France with fervent West German backing, is resisting any temporary deal. The French argue that any change would jeopardize the Allied rights in Berlin. The French contend that if Khrushchev really wants a political accommodation with the West he will make no trouble over Berlin.

Accordingly they insist that the Allies go no further in offering concessions to Moscow than those put forward at last spring's Geneva conference.

In the unsuccessful Geneva meetings, the Western powers indicated a readiness to cut their Berlin garrisons, to curb propaganda activities in West Berlin if the Reds would do the same in East Berlin, to accept East German control along the routes into the city from West Germany.

Telephone Hog Is Fined $210

MILLBURN, N.J. (AP)—A magistrate has fined a housewife $210 after ruling her guilty of refusing to interrupt her party line telephone conversation to let a doctor make an emergency call.

Magistrate Milton Freiman levied the fine Friday against Mrs. Peter Zelinski. No final action was taken on a codefendant, Jeanette Hausler, of Springfield.

They also offered to look at the situation again after five years. The Soviets stood firm on Khrushchev's original demand that Western troops get out of Berlin, but they dropped Khrushchev's six-month time limit, which already had expired without incident.

Stores Open Next Week

Circleville stores head into the last minute holiday rush Monday. They will be open until 9 p. m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Stores will close at 6 p. m. Thursday so that employees may enjoy Christmas Eve with their families.

All four Circleville banks have announced they will be closed next Saturday, the day after Christmas.

Chiropractors Freed in Ad Dispute Case

CELINA, Ohio (AP)—Judge Robert L. Harrington has dismissed charges against five chiropractors, accused of advertising themselves to practice a branch of medicine without a license.

In his opinion delivered Friday, Judge Harrington of Van Wert, ruled the Ohio Medical Board was not sufficiently vigorous in prosecuting the case.

The judge said he had seen more about the charges in the press than he had heard in court. Harrington was sitting in the court by assignment.

The opinion acquitted Charles Amato, Oral W. Gerous, Herald Miller, all of Celina and John D. Rudd and Albert M. Cochran of Coldwater.

Specifically the charge was "advertising themselves to be practitioners of medicine and surgery in one of its branches to wit, chiropractic, in displaying signs to that effect without having first having received a certificate from the state medical board authorizing them so to do."

Rocky Ends His 'Research' Tour

Presidential Race Decision Awaited

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has wound up his 5,636-mile six-day tour that took him into seven states. He says he has done all the traveling he is going to do in researching his presidential possibilities.

Rockefeller called the trip "wonderful." He arrived here by plane Friday night from Miami after a three-hour delay caused by a broken water hose in one of the plane's engines and air traffic congestion in the New York area. He left immediately by car to spend part of the weekend with relatives and friends in Millbrook, N.Y.

Rockefeller told newsmen in Miami that the trip winds up "all the fact-finding I'm going to do by traveling." The governor has indicated that public opinion polls also will influence his decision as to whether he oppose Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the Republican presidential nomination next year.

"I'm neither optimistic nor pessimistic," Rockefeller said when asked whether the trip had shed any light on his national political possibilities. He said he wants to make up his mind before the New York Legislature meets Jan. 5. He received a warm welcome in Florida, although GOP leaders there overwhelmingly favor Nixon.

Asked if he had been asked to enter the Florida presidential primary, Rockefeller replied: "Well, I haven't been crowded on it."

Besides Florida, Rockefeller visited Indiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Republican officials were friendly to him in each state—with a few exceptions, he said. He declined to specify the exceptions.

Khrush Keeps Word to Pair From Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—A Chicago couple was overcome with emotion Friday when they learned an appeal to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had lifted the Iron Curtain and they soon will be reunited with their two children after 15 years.

Soviet officials in Moscow told the U.S. Embassy the two Lithuanian children, Regina Leonas, 20, and her brother, Thomas, 17, will be sent to Chicago to join their parents some time next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulius Leonas, who had made a personal plea to Khrushchev for reunion with their children when he was in Des Moines last Sept. 23, were thrilled.

"I thought we would have to wait longer," said Leonas, 43, a real estate dealer. "This is a big shock, but oh, what a good one."

Mrs. Leonas, 41, was so excited she could hardly talk to a reporter.

The Leonases fled from Lithuania in 1944 to escape Communist oppression. They left the children with Mrs. Leonas' parents, escaped to the British zone in Germany, and lived in England and Canada before coming to Chicago as displaced persons in 1953. They became naturalized citizens last January.

Home Construction To Slow During 1960 Forecast Says

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

New home construction is expected to drop off in 1960. The rate of home building is speeded up or slowed down by the easing or tightening of money. Whether or not building matches the 1960 potential market depends largely on credit. With construction wages, land, credit, and material costs higher housing construction will slow up.

There is no evidence of an excess of housing and more demand is coming. If money becomes plentiful an even bigger building boom may hit us in late 1960. Census bureau studies indicate that a yearly increase in the number of families and other households may be more than one million by 1961 while it is less than 700,000 for 1960.

Recent changes in the F. H. A. housing regulations include cuts in downpayments and raised ceilings on mortgages. Minimum downpayments are cut from $650 to $600 on a $15,000 house, from $2,000 to $1,500 on a $20,000 house, and from $3,000 to $2,500 on a $25,000 house. Loans on houses valued at $13,500 or less are not affected.

Prices of clothing will change very little in 1960. If there is a change it will be up. Beginning March 3, 1960, a new law will help in the selection of fabrics. Under the terms of this new law, the fiber content must be given on almost all fabrics used in wearing apparel.

New fibers are continually being developed. The newest man-made fibers are vycron and zantril. Many new finishes and yard constructions are being introduced.

Families are spending at an all

Ohio Pork Market Labeled 'Very Slow'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The packing industry states that pork business is very slow and the market depressed, with a poor outlook for improvement, the Department of Agriculture reports.

In its weekly summary of the livestock markets, the department said the adverse publicity received by the poultry industry this week may cause more people to turn to the use of pork to replace poultry in their diet.

Prices paid for market hogs averaged 50 cents lower than last week at $12.35 per 100 pounds.

time high of $41 billion for leisure time products. More than one-third goes for recreation and domestic travel. Radios, television sets, and phonographs take about

$5 billion. Next on the list are gardening equipment, overseas travel, boating, photography, swimming pools, and the increasingly popular hi-fi and stereo components.

Early Pilgrims Suppressed Observance of Christmas

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

Less than a month ago, while preparations for Thanksgiving were at a height, the air was filled with praises for the spiritual qualities of the Pilgrims, who conceived the holiday.

But now with Christmas, one of the two great holy days of Christianity peeping around the corner of the calendar, the pious Pilgrims disappear so thoroughly they might never have existed.

The reason: The Pilgrims of Plymouth, and their brethren, the Puritans of Boston and England, took note of Christmas only long enough to pass laws suppressing it.

The festive Christmas season which could get pretty riotous in England seemed a time of almost pagan revelry to the straight-laced Pilgrims and its religious rites smacked strongly of the Catholicism they abhorred.

Besides, they would argue, no one really knew Jesus' birth date, anyway, so the whole celebration was dubious.

Their first Christmas in the new land, Dec. 25, 1620, was just another work day for the Pilgrims.

But Christmas 1621, there were enough newcomers around the colony to protest the austerity. They were recent arrivals aboard the good ship Fortune.

Pilgrim Father William Bradford recalled in his journal:

"On the day called Christmas Day, the Governor called them out to work as was usual. But most of this new company excused themselves and said it went against their consciences to work on that day.

"So the Governor told them that if they made it a matter of conscience, he would spare them until they were better informed; so he led away the rest and left them.

"But when they came home at noon from their work, he found them in the street at play, openly; some pitching the bar, and some at stoolball and such like sports.

"So he went to them and took away their implements and told them that it was against his conscience that they should play and others work.

"If they made the keeping of it matter of devotion, let them keep their houses; but there should be no gaming or reveling in the streets."

"Since which time," Bradford added with obvious satisfaction, "nothing has been attempted that way, at least openly."

Steel Strike Hikes Idleness in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The steel strike helped boost idleness of Ohio workers to a new high, State Industrial Relations Director Margaret A. Mahoney reported today.

Third quarter work stoppage idleness rose to an estimated 5 1/2 million man-days, she said.

"This is the highest quarterly loss ever recorded by the department and seven times Ohio's idleness of the same period a year ago," the report stated.

Canton and Youngstown were hardest hit by the steel strike. Youngstown lost 24 per cent of its worktime and Canton 11 per cent, figures showed.

Indiana Man Killed At Celina Crossing

Driver of the car, Alvin Miller, 22, also of Portland, was listed in critical condition at a Lima Hospital. The train crew said the car did not slow when it came to the crossing.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Official weather bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

A ridge of high pressure over the plains states this morning will gradually move eastward to bring fair skies and colder temperatures over the state.

Friday night skies were mostly cloudy as northerly winds moved over Lake Erie. A few light snow flurries occurred in the extreme northeast but no reports of any accumulation have been received.

Tonight will be colder as skies clear and Sunday will be a little warmer with mostly sunny skies.

Temperatures this morning dipped below the freezing mark in most areas with the coldest readings in the northwest section where skies were slowly clearing. Toledo had 22, Marietta 34, Columbus and Cleveland 31.

Toledo Area Man Killed As Fire Sweeps Home

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Fire killed a 46-year-old Springfield Township man Friday and destroyed his one-story frame home on Angola Road, two miles west of here. The victim, Alvin Shaw, died of suffocation, Coroner Paul Hohly ruled. Firemen estimated damage at $7,000 and blamed an overheated heater for the blaze.

Ohio Deer License Total Far Below '58

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Division of Wildlife predicts the total deer permit sales will total almost 27,000 and that deer hunters will bag 2,750 deer. Last year, permit sales were almost 43,000 and 4,400 deer were taken. The estimates are taken from first day reports projected with last year's totals for the same period, the division said.

Lorain Steelworkers Scheduled for Vote

LORAIN, Ohio (AP) — Steelworkers attending the Local 1104 Christmas party today and Sunday will get a chance to vote on whether to accept steel management's contract proposals. Wives of the 9,000 members also will get a chance to vote. Michael Bushch, Local 1104 president, said Friday he would conduct the balloting and keep a separate tally of the wives' vote. He expects to poll 60 to 70 per cent of the local's membership.

Guest speaker for the 10:30 a. m. Worship Service at the Church of Christ will be Clyde Harper, Columbus.

Jack Rankin, minister, will present the sermon for the 7:45 p. m. service entitled "Man's Museum". By way of drawings we will lift up the bony structure of man's head to get a look at the mind. The gray matter will be viewed as rooms in this temple of ours. We will have to give account of how we care for these rooms in this Christian house.

As we take a tour down the observation hall to see the many rooms of Man's Museum it should cause us to take a better look at how these areas are being filled. After all, the mind grows by what it feeds on.

We will look into the thought room as we study this theme together. Some rooms will be filled with pure thoughts while others will have mostly evil ones. As we tour the affection room it will be easy to tell if your mind is centered mostly on Heavenly affection or on earthly affections.

Paul in writing to Timothy said, "But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them". To keep our minds clean we should abide in those teachings which will increase our understanding of the sacrifice that has been made for us.

Let us be careful how we fill the rooms of the mind. Come and study with us and you will have an inside look at the rooms in your life.

Mother Seton Honored Anew

American Nearing Sainthood Status

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Mother Seton, who is expected to become the first U.S. — born saint of the Roman Catholic Church, Friday was proclaimed "venerable" in Vatican ceremonies attended by Pope John XXIII.

The proclamation, announcing she is worthy of veneration by Roman Catholics, was a preliminary step to beatification, which places one among the church's blessed.

Beatification is frequently—but not always—followed by canonization or elevation to sainthood, the highest honor of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pope John has taken a personal interest in Mother Seton's cause; a factor supporting the belief she will be canonized.

Mother Seton was born Elizabeth Ann Seton in New York Aug. 28, 1774. A convert to Catholicism, she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph in America, who adopted the rule of the European order of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

She died in Emmitsburg, Md., Jan. 4, 1821.

Today's ceremony came one year to the day after the cause for her beatification was officially proposed.

Attending the ceremony were nine cardinals, including the two new U. S. cardinals, Albert Gregory Meyer and Aloisius Muench, elevated to the purple in ceremonies of the past week. Cardinal Meyer is the Archbishop of Chicago. Cardinal Muench has been bishop of Fargo, N.D., until now.

Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, also was present. So were 15 American bishops and the 280 students of the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

State Sales Tax Agents To Get Pay Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson said today many of his sales tax agents will start receiving higher commissions early next year.

The new rate on stamp sales to retailers will be one per cent on the first $50,000 and 3/4 of one per cent beyond that total.

The current rate is one per cent to $20,000; 3/4 per cent between $20,000 and $100,000 and 1/2 per cent above that amount.

Ferguson estimated the change would increase commissions about $5,000 for each four-week pay period, starting the first week in January. Commissions paid then will be for stamp sales during the pay period ending Dec. 21. There are 13 pay periods annually.

But Ferguson said only about 50 of his 422 agents would benefit by the boost because of their volume sales. Many agents sell the stamps in connection with their business and their commissions are less than $100 a pay period, he explained.

The state treasurer said the change will apply only to his appointees. It will not affect county treasurers, whose one per cent commission on sale of stamps goes to their counties, or to clerks of court whose commissions also go to their counties from the tax on motor vehicle sales for which stamps are not issued.

Santa and the ICE KING

by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Oonik and Santa have finally found the Ice King, busily grinding out harsh winter storms from his fearful ice castle. When Santa explained that he and Oonik had come as friends, the Ice King stopped his work and suddenly burst into tears.

Chapter Twelve THE ICE KING'S STORY

Oonik marveled to see the Ice King cry. Even the King's tears were made of ice. They rained from his cheeks and clattered to the floor like hailstones on a roof.

"What is it? What is the matter?" cried Santa in alarm.

"Nothing," replied the Ice King kicking away the tears. "It's just that you're the first to ever come here and call himself friend."

Then he told Santa how all his life he had lived alone in his frozen castle where not even a servant would live. How no one ever came to call. How he had no friends and everyone in the whole world hated him because he was Winter itself and brought everyone cold and misery.

"But you are wrong!" protested Santa. "Winter has its proper place. Children love snow and animals love to hibernate and even grownups love to sit before their fires on stormy nights."

The King's face brightened. "Do they really like me?" he asked.

"Of course they do," replied Santa.

"But now," wept on Santa sternly, "it is August. For four months the world has waited for spring and summer but still you send your ice and snow and frigid winds. That is wrong. Why do you do it?"

"It's because I am so lonely!" burst out the Ice King. "All winter I can keep busy making storms but in summertime there's nothing to do but sit and mope. So this year I decided I would just keep on making winter forever and that way I'll always be busy and happy too."

Santa shook his head sadly. "And so the whole world will freeze and starve."

The Ice King hung his head and walked away. "I thought since they hated me anyway I might as well be really hateful," he mumbled.

Santa took out his pipe and lit it. For a long while he smoked in silence and then he said, "You must get a wife."

"What?" cried the Ice King turning to stare.

"A wife. You must get a wife to love you and care for you and keep you from being lonely or feeling hateful again."

"A wife!" whispered the Ice King and his eyes softened and he began to smile. Then his face clouded over and he burst out bitterly. "Who would ever marry me?"

"There are lonely maidens in the world just as there are lonely men," said Santa. "The trick is to get them together. I have in mind for you a beautiful creature whom

"Who would ever marry me," wailed the lonely Ice King.

I happen to know is in a marrying mood."

"Who?" said the Ice King eagerly.

"The Sun Daughter," said Santa.

"She dwells in the East where the sun rises each day." He paused and scratched his head. "Ah," he sighed. "If only I had my reindeer back we could travel there in a single day!"

Oonik, quiet and awe-struck all this time, now tugged at Santa's sleeve.

"I can get the reindeer," he said. Santa shook his head. "No, my boy, I turned them loose, you remember, and they are far away now hunting for the summer food they could not find up here."

"I am a good reindeer hunter," Oonik bragged. "My father taught me well."

"But even your father has not been able to find any reindeer this summer," said Santa.

"I will not find just any reindeer," insisted Oonik, "I will find your reindeer."

"But how can you?" cried Santa, "when I have turned them free?"

"Because," said Oonik with a smile, "they have followed you here, all the way."

National Dems Book Parley For Jan. 22

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Democratic National Committee will meet here Jan. 22 to discuss 1960 national convention and campaign plans.

While the meeting's agenda has yet to be decided, several state leaders have indicated they will fight National Chairman Paul M. Butler's proposal to penalize states behind in their campaign donations.

Some committeemen also have spoken up in favor of the Butler proposal which would assign convention seats and hotel rooms on the basis of state records of financial support of the National Committee in the 39 months up to April 1, 1960.

The Democrats have been having difficulties meeting current operating expenses at national headquarters while at the same time raising money to pay off a huge deficit from the 1956 campaign.

Another scrap that may materialize at the Jan. 22 meeting is a proposal which Illinois Committeeman Jacob M. Arvey has promised to put forward which would give the larger states greater voice in National Committee decisions.

Arvey would give each state the same number of votes in the committee as it has in the national convention instead of the traditional two votes each. On the basis

Payoff at Bank Doesn't Pay Off

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Crime doesn't pay.

Detective Sgt. Kenneth Williams and Detective W. K. Mortimer were in a branch bank Thursday when two youths entered with their hands full of rolled coins.

They recognized one of the boys, Gareth Rodgers, 19 as a burglary parolee.

"Okay, we know about it," one of the detectives said. "Let's hear your side of the story."

A few minutes later, Rodgers admitted breaking into a gasoline station. He was charged with burglary.

His companion was not implicated in the burglary, but may be charged with receiving stolen property, Williams said.

of the 1960 convention vote apportionment, this would give New York 114 votes and Illinois 69 votes, with only 9 each for Vermont and Hawaii. All these states now have an even voice in the committee.

THE GENERAL TIRE

Glamor Is Not All Beauty

A favorite subject of articles in Sunday supplements is women in their 40s who have been fairly successful at looking as if they might still be in their 20s. Readers are led to believe that their exercises and their diets and so forth are good for their physical health. Certainly the glow of health is a great beautifier and rejuvenator.

Usually no data are provided on the state of their mental health. The battle against middle age is a holding action at best, and as the hated enemy inexorably approaches closer the strain on feminine nerves must be heavy. It is easier, of course, to be one's age.

Many European visitors look upon the American cult of youth-worship with some amazement. Middle-age, they say, can be the best part of a woman's life. Why not relax and enjoy it? But this advice, if it is heard at all, is not heeded amid the clamor of the ads.

If the advertisers know what they are doing, the conclusion is inescapable that a woman's sole aim in life is to acquire the qualities adumbrated by that broadly mysterious work, glamor. And the way to acquire it, according to the advertisers' consensus, is to fake it.

Put on more lipstick, conceal unsightly bulges with girdles, bathe in carbollic acid, brush tusks with ammonia, mold the figure, reduce with pills and potions, anoint with lascivious scents. Glamor—ah!

A mite of paint and perfume and even clothing can make women more attractive. But glamor formerly was a good word and it meant something that cannot be faked. Good health and good muscle tone are part of it. A warm disposition and a sense of humor added will do more for a woman's looks than anything that ever came out of a bottle.

Anyway, looks aren't everything. One pollster reports that men put it well down on the list of qualities they want in a wife. They prefer women who know their way around a home, women who are understanding, kind, easy to get along with.

Would it be outlandish to suggest that these qualities, whether the girls realize it or not, also have something to do with glamor?

A practical nurse is one who marries a rich patient.

Political Fights Welcome

Two contrary forces are at work on public opinion in this country at this moment. One is that there should be unity because the President is abroad and he needs the appearance of not the substance of total national support.

The other is that a great many things have happened during the past 20 or so years and are happening now which are impoverishing this nation during a period which gives the semblance of prosperity.

About much of this, the American people know very little. We have, for instance, been told that we are world leaders, that we have poured out huge sums, variously estimated as between $70,000,000,000 and $100,000,000,000, to take care of all the world. And now we discover that much of our gold reserve has been "ear-marked" by other nations and that we have very little of it left for ourselves.

We discover that Great Britain, West Germany, Japan and other countries are attaining a to them and at the same time, we are asked to put up $4.00.

HARDEN CHEVROLET

By George Sokolsky

Prof. John K. Galbraith of Harvard, writing in "American Heritage," said:

"...The American government works far better—perhaps it only works—when the executive, the business power, and the press are in some degree at odds. Only then can we be sure that abuse or neglect, either private or public, will be given the notoriety that is needed."

Prof. Galbraith might also have included the labor unions which are now so important. As power corrupts, so does complacency and apathy. In a free society, no public official, from the smallest clerk up to the head of the state, should ever feel comfortable that his judgment will not be questioned, his errors exposed and his cupidity made a matter of historical record.

This country developed when the people took an enormous interest in politics, when Presidents were abused and attacked and when the muck-rakers dominated the press and shrieked and shouted against iniquities. "Yellow Journalism" safeguarded America from political corruption and economic cupidity. It exposed crooks as well as hypocrites.

In the politeness of these days, of the gentility of our politicians and the courteous attitude of the press, the power of the Executive branch of the government grows out of bounds.

To go back to the Cuban situation, as well as the Panamanian, someone blundered. The American people were informed by their government and by the press that Batista was a bad dictator but that Castro was a democrat. It has turned out that Castro is a worse dictator than Batista was.

The experts in the State Department should have known about Fidel Castro. They should have known that Raul Castro was Moscow-trained. They should have anticipated the confiscation of American property and the peril to American life. They are paid to know details and to conceive correct programs.

A government cannot function if officials act irresponsibly and do not fear the consequences of their errors or their abuse of power. A free people cannot continue free if the conduct of their affairs is secret.

Perhaps the only advantage of a Presidential Election every four years is that an opportunity is provided the people to bring the full weight of public criticism upon government and to "throw the rascals" out, if necessary and possible. When a Presidential Election is nothing more than a popularity contest between two mediocre but forceful individuals, it would be just as satisfactory to nominate Marilyn Monroe and Jayne Mansfield as the candidates for both parties, flip a coin to determine which party takes which female, and let the election go by default.

If no greater intellectual acumen and spiritual elevation appear during the next year than have so far been evident, why not sing some rock-n-roll instead of making campaign speeches which sound no better?

This is not written in mockery; it is a serious protest against the debauching apathy of our people to errors in policy and practice which are costing our people their economic strength and which are obviously demoralizing the next generation.

In such a moment in our history, great figures have appeared who knew only the truth. Have we become so comfortable and so well-off that we have lost our savor for the truth? Why do not those who aspire to be President step forward to speak their minds without fear or favor?

Facts about the Menopause

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Call it menopause or climacteric, but don't call it change of life.

While the menopause does, of course, cause certain physical and emotional changes, it is far from being a complete change of life. Women retain their usual reaction to sex long after experiencing the menopause.

The normal sex urges remain and happy marital relations generally can continue for many years.

As a matter of fact, a great many women report improved health after the menopause. Those who have suffered physical or emotional difficulties during their menstrual periods generally welcome the relief.

The menopause itself, however, can be a trying experience for the female sex hormones which the ovaries produce cause certain symptoms such as hot flashes, nervousness and depression.

Not all women experience these symptoms to the same degree. Some, however, become so depressed that simple everyday problems become too much to cope with.

Unfortunately, far too many women simply suffer through it. There is no need for this self-sacrificing attitude today, with all the medical aids we have at hand.

We can usually give a woman medicine containing the ovarian hormone, or chemicals which have a similar action, until the symptoms disappear. In other words, we put back into her body the thing that nature no longer produces.

This treatment generally is prolonged and may last anywhere from a few months to a year or even two. But it usually does the job.

Ordinarily the menopause occurs between the ages of 40 and 50. It begins gradually, the first indication of it being a decrease in the monthly flow.

As soon as you notice this or any symptoms indicating the menopause, consult your doctor. Discuss frankly with him your worries and fears, if any.

He will be able to help you throughout this period.

Don't, however, listen to the advice of relatives and friends. This is a medical problem, and if you want advice about a medical problem, see your doctor.

Question and Answer

Mrs. W. C. McC.: Is there any way to prevent cataract or retard its growth if it has already started?

Answer: No.

FACES REVOLUTION—A weekend revolution broke out in Paraguay against the government of President Gen. Alfredo Stroessner. He became president in 1954 after a series of revolutions, and was re-elected in 1958 to a five-year term.

He's Another Washington, Yuletide Style

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Eight-year-old Eugene Monnier Jr. may have presidential aspirations. Leastways, he's following in G. Washington's fabled footsteps.

There's one minor difference: 'Twas an evergreen rather than a cherry tree.

Armed with his trusty ax, Gene was Christmas tree hunting in a fashionable, wooded section of Dayton where he lives. He was unable to distinguish between the forest and a shapely 12-foot tree in a yard a few doors down the avenue.

It takes an 8-year-old quite a few whacks with a boy-size ax to fell a tree with a three-inch trunk, but Gene made it. He was trudging home dragging his prize behind him when Randy Scott, 9, and Larry Scott, 12, laid rightful claim to the tree on grounds it had come from their yard.

Over Gene's protest, the tree began its return trip to the R. L. Scott home. It was several days before the word filtered through the grapevine to Mrs. Monnier, Gene's mother. And it wasn't the Scotts who preached.

Finally confronted by the evidence, Gene ran true to form—he didn't tell a lie.

Now practically everybody's happy. The Monniers paid the Scotts $75 for the damage, the tree is in the Scott livingroom all decorated for the Yuletide and the families agree happily:

"We might never have met had it not been for this."

Gene isn't saying much. The $75 is coming out of his allowance.

Cincy Firm's Invention May Cut Electricity Cost

CINCINNATI (AP) — Electric power may be cheaper to make if a new device developed by Avco Corp. can be adapted to commercial production.

The device, result of a 10-year study, substitutes gas flowing through a magnetic field for the usual whirling coils of wire which cut the magnetic field to produce electricity in today's generators.

Full name of the gadget is magnetohydrodynamic generator, which usually is shortened to MHD generator.

If feasible on a large scale, Avco's laboratory experiment may eliminate steam turbines which spin the armature coils of conventional generators.

The new generator is expected to operate at a thermal efficiency near 55 per cent. The best modern plants can do about 40 per cent.

The MHD generator works on this principle:

Any substance that's a conductor of electricity, and which moves through a magnetic field, will induce a current of electricity.

But normal gases will not conduct electricity, because the atoms of the gas are balanced—the negative charge of electrons spinning around the nucleus are cancelled by the positive nucleus.

To create a "plasma," the electrons must be stripped from the nucleus in some way. The gas is then called "ionized" and the negative and positive particles will conduct electricity.

Avco drew on research in developing nose cones to solve the major obstacle to using plasmas. Great heat—about 5,000 degrees—is needed to ionize a gas.

Most materials today cannot stand this temperature. But nose cone work gave them the material needed.

Avco's laboratory model can develop enough electricity to power nearly 300 light bulbs. The company has a contract with a group of 10 power companies to build big models to check on economy of operation on a commercial scale.

The MHD generator consists of a stream of plasma surging through a magnetic field set up by coils of wire around the stream.

Electrodes at the edges of the stream take off the electricity created in the plasma as it zips through the field. A heat-resistant cone funnels the plasma through the magnetic field.

Work with plasma, called the fourth state of matter—the other three are solid, liquid and gas—is still relatively new.

Russia Superior To U.S. in Filing Foreign Documents

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Soviet system of abstracting and translating foreign medical and scientific articles is far superior to the American system, says a prominent surgeon.

Dr. Charles C. Higgins, chairman of the American College of Surgeons' board of governors and head of the urology department at Cleveland Clinic, toured Russia last summer.

Speaking to a group of businessmen Thursday he said the Soviet Institute of Scientific Information publishes annually 35 to 40 volumes containing 450,000 abstracts and translations of scientific writing from 80 countries.

Dr. Higgins added: "They are completely familiar with scientific progress around the world. We are not. We receive about 20,000 foreign scientific articles a year but they are not translated and they gather dust in Washington."

CIRCLEVILLE SAVINGS and BANKING CO.

Wise Men travelled a desert to lay their gifts before a King.
But the King was a mere babe. His court was a cattle shed;
His princely garb swaddling bands.
Could they be certain when they knelt by the manger that this was the end of the quest?
Their certainty came not of proof but of faith. They had marvelled at the heavens . . . followed a gleaming star . . . listened to prophecy. For Wise Men this was enough!

And through the centuries others have sought the King. Eagerly, earnestly they have come into the reverent beauty of the Church. And there, as ageless Words cast their light in man's darkness, they have known the end of their quest.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Serve Family Favorites For the Holiday Season

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN
Holidays are the time when Grandma's recipes are in demand. It's a good reason why one recipe collection is getting attention.

It's "The All-New Fanny Farmer Boston Cooking School Cookbook."

A valuable guide that tells how to cook everything from basic dishes to extra specialties, it first appeared in 1896, when women's place was definitely in the kitchen. Even then, it was revolutionary!

No publisher would believe women would buy a cookbook, so Fanny Farmer paid for the first printing herself. Thus a perennial best-seller was born.

Pioneer in the cause of good food, Fanny Farmer triumphed over odds that might have stumped others, making a woman's career in a man's world. And this, despite the fact that a crippling girlhood disease made it necessary for her to travel, talk, taste and write from a wheelchair.

Now, 63 years later, her book, updated for an age of convenience foods and career women, remains a valued guide for today's homemaker.

Perhaps its enduring charm and value is the fact that, since Miss Farmer's death in 1915 it has been a family affair, now edited by her niece, Wilma Lord Perkins.

In this newest revision, Mrs. Perkins has modernized method, content and format, placing emphasis on recipes that use frozen, canned and prepared foods creatively.

ter than ever, as custom-cooked for today's homemaker as it was for Mrs. America of 1896.

From this new volume, with its old-fashioned charm and modern know-how, come the following recipes for holiday entertaining—Salad Sandwich Loaf, perfect for ladies' luncheons, and Orange Puff, a creamy dessert.

Salad Sandwich Loaf: Prepare 3 c. chicken, tuna, salmon or mixed vegetable salad.

Remove crust from 1 small loaf firm bread, unsliced. Cut in 4 slices lengthwise. Spread 2 slices on one side (for top and bottom) and 2 slices on both sides (for middle layers) with creamed butter or mayonnaise.

On three slices, put layer of lettuce, cut small.

Spread salad on lettuce. Put layers together. Top with fourth slice, buttered side down.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

You Are to Blame, Mother

DEAR ABBY: My 15-year-old son has been going steady with a 13-year-old girl since last May. He practically lives at her apartment. Her mother is home but that doesn't make any difference. They still lay on her bed listening to records with the door shut. I saw it myself when I walked over there at 11 p. m. to tell him to come home. They have sat on our front steps in broad daylight with her crawling all over him and running her fingers through his hair and around his ears. It made me sick.

When I talk to him he hums and tells me to save my breath. His school called and said they are ready to throw him out because he cuts classes to go to her school and walk her home. I am half out of my mind with this problem. How does a mother handle a son who is bigger than she is when his father is dead?

HEARTSICK MOTHER
DEAR HEARTSICK: You are desperately searching for the fire hose after the house is in ashes. You didn't wake up one morning to find your 15-year-old son "out of control." He got out of control by inches. And you gave in an inch at a time. A 15-year-old boy who is all wrapped up in a 13-year-old girl, has no respect for his mother and defies the rules at school is a sitting duck for double trouble. If it isn't too late for a clergyman or an understanding teacher to straighten out this boy, the Law will do it eventually—the hard way.

DEAR ABBY: Here is my story and every word of it is true: Eight years ago I married a man who said he loved me so much he couldn't live without me. From the day I married him I have worked like a dog both at home and on split-shift waiting tables. He makes good money himself, but I have yet to see the first quarter. All these years he has never taken me on a vacation. But he goes himself every summer for three weeks. He has bought himself hunting guns, fishing tackle, and an outboard motor for cash. But he owes me $1100. I buy all my own clothes, pay my own doctor bills, insurance and automobile. It looks like I married him for the privilege of sleeping with him. Is it worth it?

FRANCESS
DEAR FRANCESS: I don't know. Is it?

DEAR ABBY: I was born a third degree breach case and everything has been backwards for me ever since.

I had to quit school at 16 to help out at home because my mother was sickly. When I should have been having fun I was stuck at home. Mother died. At age 29 I took a business course which led to a good paying job. Then they moved our offices way out in the sticks and decided to employ only local women. I'm no Miss America but uglier girls are getting married every day.

How does a respectable woman my age meet a respectable man? Or aren't there any left?

BACKWARDS
DEAR BACKWARDS: Get interested in some outside activities. Church, choir, adult study groups, volunteer worker politics to name a few. Respectable people are found in respectable places. And be sure to let your friends know that you are interested in an eligible man your age. Almost everyone has a cousin, brother or visiting fireman.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Tiger Bid Is Sidetracked By McClain in 39-37 Tilt

Circleville's bid for first place in the South Central Ohio League suffered a temporary setback last night at Greenfield in a weird and hectic game.

Greenfield moved into undisputed first place in the SCO by handing the locals a meagre 39-37 defeat after leading by 15 points at one time in the game. Circleville, jinxed most of the way, failed to get a bucket in the first quarter.

The Tigers fired seven times in the opening canto, but failed to connect. Their first basket came with about four minutes gone in the second quarter.

Greenfield didn't do much better, getting only six, points in the frustrating first quarter. Both teams fired wildly and were seised with turnovers.

AS it turned out, the last quarter provided more action and thrills than the other three periods added together. Trailing 31-24 going into the finale, the Tigers suddenly found the recipe to get going.

A spirited comeback saw the Red and Black close the gap to 36-35 with about 1:15 remaining. With 20 seconds left, Bob Shadley hit a jump shot to make the score read, 38-37, in favor of Greenfield.

Greenfield's Pete Coleman added a foul shot with 15 seconds remaining, but Circleville got another chance when Dave Hicks was fouled with four seconds to go.

The courageous CHS guard had a one-and-one situation, but he missed his first attempt and the

Paint Valley Tops Bulldogs In Overtime

Centralia nearly pulled the upset of the Ross County League last night before losing to invading Paint Valley, 45-43, in an overtime.

The Bulldogs trailed at the end of the first quarter, 14-13, but went ahead, 27-22, at halftime. Paint Valley rallied in the third period for a 36-36 deadlock.

Each team scored five points in the final quarter, playing possession type ball throughout the contest. The Bulldogs shot just 26 times, notching 13 for .500 per cent.

Paint Valley attempted 38 field goals, connecting on 15 for .396 per cent. Centralia coach, Dick Smith, was content to try and win the game at the foul line, because PV started a team that averaged 63 1/2.

THE BULLDOGS' Sonny Harrison captured scoring honors with 21 points, hitting seven of 13 field goal attempts for .535 per cent, and notching seven of nine foul shots for .775 per cent.

Thompson was high man for PV with 12 points and its 6' 7" center, Wiley, had eight markers. Led by Bruce Copeland, Don Ault and Tom Haynes, Centralia out-rebounded Paint Valley.

The only real dent PV was able to put in the Bulldog armor was its effective fast break when it could be utilized.

The Bulldogs stand 4-4 on the season and 1-2 in league play. Its reserve unit dropped its first 1959-60 contest, 43-18, as PV outclassed the peppy Bulldogs. They stand 7-1 on the year.

Unknown Cuban Defeats Scott

NEW YORK (AP)—What a difference just one fight can make! Friday afternoon Cuba's Benny (Kid) Paret was a so-so fighter hoping to make good against Charley Scott, the top-ranking welterweight contender, in order to get a few more paydays in the ring.

Friday night, following his decisive upset decision over the 3-1 favored Scott in the television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden, Paret was hollering for a shot at welterweight champion Don Jordan.

Scott, a 23-year-old Philadelphian, had won six straight and was clamoring for a shot at Jordan. Now he's hoping to get a return fight with the unranked, 22-year-old Cuban.

game was all but over. Circleville suffered early when Jake Bailey committed his third personal foul before the first quarter was half gone. He was forced to sidelines for most of the remainder of the game until fouling out early in the final episode.

To make matters worse, Larry Hannahs was charged with his fourth and fifth personals early in the third canto. Sam Weller and Jimmie Wellington came on as replacements to play a big part in Circleville's desperate last quarter counter-attack.

GREENFIELD, blessed with plenty of size and speed, upped its SCOL record to three wins and no losses. Circleville tasted its first league defeat in three starts to fall behind 3-1 Wilmington.

No matter how hard they tried, the Tigers couldn't buy a bucket in the opening quarter. Shadley, Hicks and Linden Gibson hit a foul toss each and that was all.

For Greenfield, Bill Harewood and Roger Grooms connected on jump shots and Lee Morehead and Dick Craft potted foul throws to make the official scorers' job an easy one.

Action picked up a little in the second quarter as Greenfield went on a spree for 11 points. Circleville remained in the doldrums with 11 tallies and a 25-14 deficit.

The Tiger task looked hopeless in the third quarter as Hannahs fouled out and Bailey walked on thin ice with four personals. Greenfield took advantage of the situation to run up a 31-16 margin before the Tigers could regroup for running room.

The Roundtowners suddenly got a new lease on life midway in the third stanza when Shadley netted two straight buckets and Gibson collaborated for a fielder and a foul to cut the hosts' lead to 31-23.

A BUSHEL of thrills was in store the last quarter. Shadley, Gibson and Weller combined forces to give the Tigers their most potent scoring punch of any time in the game.

Greenfield, taxed to the limit after Grooms and Craft fouled out, picked up its last eight points at the foul line. Coleman was the villain as far as Circleville was concerned.

The speedy McClain guard netted five charities in a row, all of them vitally needed. Harewood tossed in two more bonus throws with 1:15 left and Coleman then cleaned up with a solitary one-pointer.

Circleville's spirited rally dimmed when Hick's first foul toss hit the rim a fraction of an inch

Scioto Drops Pirates, 78-60

Highlighted by the close-in shooting of Phil Hoover, the Scioto Buffaloes won their first Pickaway County League contest last night over invading Pickaway, 78-60.

The surprise scoring threat in the form of Hoover helped Scioto overcome a Pirate lead in the third quarter. It was Scioto's second win in six outings.

Hoover tickled the nets for 30 points from under the bucket and picked off 30 rebounds to completely dominate play of both teams.

Dick Kaiser followed his teammate in the scoring column with 18 points from the corner. Ralph England and Norman Wilson were top men for the Pirates with 16 points apiece. England hit from in close and Wilson pecked away from out front.

THE BATTLING Buffaloes became torrid in the last five minutes to down a Pirate aggregation that help leads of 21-17 at the end of the first period and 35-33 at intermission.

Both teams used zone defenses with Pickaway going into a press the last four minutes to no avail. It was Pickaway's sixth loss against a lone win over Jackson, 46-41.

The Pirates managed a consolation game win by downing Scioto's reserves, 53-33. The Pirates' junior varsity holds a 5-2 slate, compared to Joe Corbett's charges' 1-3 record.

short and bounced away. It was a bitter blow for the fiery guard who had made good three times previous at the foul line.

Shadley ended high man for the Tigers with 11 points. Gibson, hitting mostly on one-handers, collected 10 and Weller, Hannahs and Hicks had five each.

Grooms was high for Greenfield with 14 markers. Coleman chipped in with 11, seven of them via the foul line.

BOTH teams had trouble keeping the lid off the hoop. Circleville garnered 10 buckets on 43 attempts for a season low 23.2 per cent. Greenfield was a little farther down the ladder with 13 fielders on 59 chances for a cool 22 per cent.

CHS netted 17 of 26 foul tosses while McClain counted 13 of 30. Shadley excelled on defense by blocking several enemy shots and pulling in his share of rebounds. The same was true for sophomore Weller.

The Kittens reserve team furnished consolation for the evening by taking a hardfought 39-29 decision. It was the first win for Coach Jack Weikert's fast-improving unit.

The Kittens grabbed an 11-8 lead at the end of the first period, then hung on for the victory. Center Dick Kline led the way with 13 points.

Wellington, later called on for varsity service, added eight and Clesson Thomas came through with seven. Ray Smith was high for the losers with seven.

Action for the Tigers and Kittens resumes today when Pleasant View rolls into town for another SCOL parley. The reserve tilt starts at 7 p. m.

Ashville Posts Win No. 7 In Topping Atlanta, 74-51

The roughriding Ashville Broncos trampled host Atlanta last night, 74-51, to retain a Pickaway County League tie with Walnut and Darby.

The Broncos ran into more difficulty than expected as the stubborn Red Raiders just wouldn't give up, battling Ashville toe-to-toe under the bankboards.

Ashville's dazzling Bobby Hoover tallied 20 points to lead the scoring parade. He was spectacular in ball handling and passing off to teammates.

Tom Rathbun followed in the scoring with 17 markers and Dale Fout notched 10. Ronnie Morris led his Atlanta teammates with 14 points, followed by Yates' 13 and Tommy Oyer's 11.

ASHVILLE took a 19-10 first quarter lead and stretched it to 32-18 at intermission. Holding a 56-29 third period lead, the Broncos still couldn't ease up as Atlanta kept nipping away at the score.

This was Ashville's seventh straight win against no defeats. Atlanta fell to its sixth loss in nine starts.

Walnut Takes Warrior Unit; Harber Nets 21

Walnut maintained a share of the Pickaway County League leadership with Ashville and Darby by topping host Saltcreek last night, 53-35.

The Tigers got started in the second period after trailing 14-12 at the first quarter mark. Walnut led at halftime, 26-19.

The Warriors couldn't keep up after intermission, falling behind, 36-25, at the third period mark. Walnut's Tom Harber led all scorers with 21 points on hooks, drives and jump shots.

The Tigers moved the ball well and its controlling of the defensive backboard was the deciding factor. Boyd Boone played a fine defensive game, holding Saltcreek's ace scorer, Denny Valentine, to nine points, well off his 16-point average.

ROGER CLARKE started the Warriors off in fine style with eight points in the initial quarter, the only points he garnered the entire game.

Walnut increased its record to 4-2 and 3-0 in league play to tie with Ashville and Darby. The Warriors took the reserve encounter, 45-37, to hand Walnut its sixth straight loss.

The Saltcreek reserves boast a 3-3 slate. The Warrior varsity is 1-5 overall.

Setting down in the final two periods, the Redskins contained the Huntsmen for their sixth win against two losses.

Danny Vollmar, hitting on drives and outside jump shots, and Bill Carmean scoring from underneath, tallied 21 and 20 points respectively.

HUNTINGTON'S ace scorer, Atwood, was held scoreless in the first half, but found the range for 16 markers in the second half. Cox and Bethel tallied 10 each for the Huntsmen.

The Redskins grabbed 46 rebounds as Carmean and Roy Congrove controlled both bandboards. Kingston hit .455 from the field and .607 from the free throw line.

Darby Pounds Jackson Five

Darby missed the 100-mark by just four points as it blasted invading Jackson last night, 96-55, in a Pickaway County League test.

The Trojans were invincible as Tommy Walters drove for 33 points and Tommy Liff set shot for 22 markers. Darby was just too much for Jackson as it drove to a 29-10 first period lead and never let up.

Coach Paul Hoskins attempted to zone Darby in the first half, but Darby's front trio screened for the Tommy twins, and the Trojans were off to their fourth win against two losses.

Darby used its second string in the third period, running in its varsity and substituting freely in the fourth stanza against Jackson's man-to-man defense. A total of 41 fouls were called—20 against Jackson and 21 against Darby.

DARBY, shooting a phenomenal .547, from the field, played its best game of the season. Jackson was led by Gary Thompson's 19 points and Larry Eitel's 14.

Jackson took the consolation affair, 42-24. Its reserve record is now 3-4, compared to the varsity's 2-4 slate. Darby's reserve are winless in six starts.

Laurelville Bumped by Murray City

Laurelville ran into unexpected stalling game tactics last night by host Murray City and dropped its second contest in nine starts, 46-45.

The Wildcats were desperately protecting a one-point lead as the seconds ticked away when Murray City's Loper stole the ball and drove in for a field goal with two seconds left in the encounter.

It was a heartbreaking loss for the Wildcats who were riding a four-game winning streak after losing to Carthage-Troy, 92-83.

Hero Loper led all scorers with 19 points on side-court drive-ins. Laurelville's Jim Unger led the Wildcats with 15 points from around the bucket.

LAURELVILLE missed the fine scoring of Max Young, who was out with a cold, and its star guard, Larry Keck, had trouble finding range, ending up with nine points. Laurelville led 13-12 at the first period mark and was on top, 24-19, at halftime. The Wildcats increased their margin one point to lead, 38-32 at the third quarter mark, but were out-scored, 14-7, in the final stanza.

The win was particularly an upset since the Miners had won few games all season. This was the Wildcats first loss in Hocking County League play.

The Laurelville reserves won behind the fine play and scoring of Ed Whistler, a recent acquisition to the squad. Whistler chalked up 17 points as Laurelville won, 62-26, for its sixth win against three losses.

Laurelville — L. Unger 2-15; J. Unger 4-13; Keck 4-13; Wiggins 2-0-4; Elert 4-1-9; Stahr 0-3-3; Totals 18-45. Murray City — Matheny 13-5; Kreuger 3-1-7; Koon 2-1-5; Loper 9-1-19; Roberts 2-0-4; Barber 3-0-6; Totals 20-46. Buckeyes Crush Butler '5' Again

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — With sophomore Jerry Lucas launching the attack Ohio State won its sixth straight basketball triumph by swamping Butler 96-68 here Friday night.

Lucas opened the Bucks' drive with one basket close in, added another from farther out and from then on the Bulldogs were in the dog house.

Butler, now 3-3, was dumped 12 days ago by the Ohio cagers, 99-66.

The 6-foot-8 Lucas won high point honors of the night with 20 points, six under his average. Fifteen of the marks were made in the first half.

Identical Twins Send Identical Yule Cards

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Maxine Ruffini was astonished by the Christmas card she received this week from Mrs. Mildred Edwards, an identical twin living some 2,300 miles away in Whittier, Calif. The postman brought the card, says Mrs. Ruffini, just as she was leaving to mail a card to her twin. The card turned out to be an identical twin to the one she was sending her sister.

Martin Denies 'Feud' with Indian Chief

CINCINNATI (AP)—Billy Martin, a major leaguer for 10 seasons and five World Series, says that was not a feud he had at Cleveland with manager Joe Gordon.

It's just that they didn't talk to each other much.

Martin, veteran American League second baseman, came to Cincinnati in a trade Tuesday, Friday he came to town to sign up for 1960—first Redleg under contract.

He said he seldom talked to Gordon "because he seldom talked to me."

"But I knew he talked about me because everytime I'd read a newspaper in Cleveland, Gordon was quoted as having said that 'Martin can't make the double play' or Martin can't do this, or that, like someone else."

"I'd have appreciated it had he come to me and suggested 'Billy why not this or that'. But no, I always had to read about it."

"It got so bad that I began thinking that maybe I was as bad as they were now saying and really it was disturbing."

Martin added: "After all this stuff about my second basing in Cleveland, my wife went to the record books and found out that while Gordon was a second baseman for 12 years, he made 258 errors, and me in 10 years made 79."

Dad, Son Bail Each Other Out

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Any good father would have done the same, but pop almost got the raw side of this deal.

Paul Honsell went to the City Jail Thursday to bail out his son, arrested on a traffic charge. As Paul Jr. walked free, Paul Sr. was hustled into the vacated cell. It seems the elder Honsell owed the city a fine for speeding.

Father and son loyalty did triumph, however. Paul Jr. rustled up some more bail money and returned to free his father.

Remains of Man Found In Rural Greene County

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—The badly decomposed remains of a man found Friday by a hunter near Huffman Dam are being investigated by Greene County authorities. The victim apparently had been dead about five years officials said. John Myers of Dayton found the body.

Gen. Ike Asks Gen. DeGaulle To Retreat in NATO Dispute

20 Underworld Figures Indicted

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal court jury Friday convicted 20 delegates to the 1957 Apalachin underworld convention of conspiracy to hide the real purpose of the convolve.

The conviction was hailed by Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers as "a landmark in the government's fight against organized crime and racketeers."

The verdict was returned by a jury of eight men and four women after more than 15 hours of deliberation to climax the 53-day trial. Some of the well-dressed defendants slumped in their seats, several sobbed. One moaned in Italian: "I'm Innocent."

an: "I'm Innocent."

Judge Irving R. Kaufman commended the jury for its "intelligent verdict." He set Jan 14 for sentencing. Each of the convicted men could get up to five years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

"You deserve the thanks of the community and the nation by your patience in sitting through this trial," Judge Kaufman told the jury. "This will show the country that grand juries and other federal agencies cannot be defied or sneered at by people who consider themselves above and beyond the law."

The defendants had explained the meeting of more than 60 underworld figures Nov. 14, 1957, at the Apalachin, N.Y., hillside estate of the late Joseph Barbara Sr. as a visit to a sick friend or a social affair. Some said they were there because they had auto trouble nearby.

Throughout the trial, the government conceded that it did not know the secret purpose of the meeting. However, Arthur L. Reuter, onetime acting commissioner of investigation, said in a report for former Gov. Averell Harriman that the convolve was believed to have been called to split up territories, divide proceeds and discuss extension of racketeering in labor unions.

From all over the country and even Cuba and Italy, the gangsters had converged on the mansion of Barbara, a 53-year-old beer and soft drink distributor who died of a heart attack last June. The meeting never got under way. State police began recording the license numbers of their expensive cars and a roadblock was set up at the entrance to the estate.

Many delegates scrambled into their cars and sped straight into the roadblock. Others fled on foot into the nearby woods. John C. Montana, 66, a usually dignified former Republican councilman in Buffalo and onetime man of the year there, was caught when he hopelessly tangled himself in a barbed wire fence.

A few delegates got away, but the others were held for questioning. In the months following the raid, the delegates were interrogated by state and federal agencies. A result was the federal charge of conspiracy to give evasive and false answers.

55-Minute Parley Said 'Very Frank'

French Still Opposed To Integrating Arms With Western Allies

PARIS (AP)—President Eisenhower today urged French President Charles de Gaulle to give ground in his opposition to integrating France's military forces with those of its Western allies.

This was confirmed by authoritative sources after Eisenhower and De Gaulle met for 55 minutes following the opening session of a three-day Western summit meeting.

Eisenhower was reported to have supported Secretary of State Christian A. Herter. Herter earlier this week told the 15-nation NATO alliance ministerial meeting that an integrated European defense system was the basis on which the United States keeps troops on the Continent.

De Gaulle's reaction was not outlined. Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, however, described the De Gaulle-Eisenhower talks as "very frank and friendly." He said they might get together again this weekend.

Earlier, De Gaulle, Eisenhower, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer opened their summit meeting in general agreement that an East-West summit session should be held.

Their talks ranged over hopes for unifying Germany and the question of divided Berlin as well as East-West negotiations on nuclear disarmament.

The four leaders took up the drafting of specific negotiating proposals to be laid before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at an East-West summit meeting next year.

A working group of diplomats from the four nations is expected to be set up to polish these proposals and to iron out differences. In their meeting in De Gaulle's office, Eisenhower and the French President also took up Algeria, another sore point in relations between the two countries.

France is unhappy because the United Nations abstained recently in the United Nations on a resolution—opposed by Paris—urging the French and Algerian rebels to negotiate.

France also feels the United States should have given stronger support to De Gaulle's plan to give Algeria the right of self-determination after peace is restored in that North African territory.

Later they took up a communiqué Eisenhower signed in Tunis on his visit to Tunisia two days ago. In the communiqué Eisenhower and Tunisian President Habib Bourguiba agreed the continued nationalist rebellion against France in Algeria constitutes a disturbing element in the world situation. The French consider this was stepping on their toes on an issue which they regard as their own affair.

The main issue between the two leaders, however, is the French attitude within the NATO alliance. De Gaulle opposes the incorporation of French forces in NATO. Eisenhower is the obvious spokesman for the 14 NATO allies of France, all of whom are in favor of defense integration.

Eisenhower and De Gaulle started their private meeting after two hours and 12 minutes of four-power conversations at Elysee Palace, which included Adenauer and Macmillan.

The four resume their talks this afternoon, accompanied by their foreign ministers who met separately this morning. Adenauer, returning to his hotel for a brief rest, told newsmen he was satisfied with the progress of the opening session. He would give no details.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (AP)—A drive to promote Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) for the Democratic presidential nomination was launched Friday by the Missouri State Democratic Committee.

Members were asked to seek support from national party leaders and potential convention delegates, and to volunteer for personal tours into other states in Symington's behalf.

Police Capture Burglary Suspect

Two alert Circleville Policemen nipped an alleged burglary attempt in their own backyard last night.

Charles V. (Jack) Lutz, 18, of 624 S. Scioto St., was apprehended inside the Easterday Sobio Service Station, at 2 a. m. The station is at Court and Franklin Sts., adjacent to police headquarters.

The keen eye of Patrolman William Goff spotted a moving shadow inside the service station for an instant. Within a matter of minutes Lutz was in custody through the efforts of Goff and Patrolman Richard Blaney.

Blaney and Goff said Lutz admitted the entry. He had $14 in change in his pocket. The officers said charges will be filed following a conference today with County Prosecutor Ray Davis.

According to patrolmen, the apprehension climaxed an investigation on Lutz which started here November 1. On that date the accused youth reported that $84.84 was taken from his mother at their S. Scioto St. residence.

Officers did not buy the story and an investigation was started. Lutz told officers that he believed his mother's money was taken by certain southend juveniles. Police said they are keeping this investigation under study.

Patrolman Goff spotted Lutz in the station while he and Blaney were checking out an intoxicated man last night at Court and Franklin Sts.

Goff said he noticed a moving shadow through the station glass. He and Blaney quickly covered the building.

The patrolmen said they recognized the youth and ordered him out of the building. He came out a rear door and surrendered, the officers said. Sgt. Robert Temple and Patrolman Wesley Barton rushed across the street to aid in the apprehension.

During the interrogation at police headquarters, Lutz told officers that he feared the service station with a key he had taken from the firm last week. He said he removed the key from a desk while on a frequent visit to the station. Goff and Blaney said he once worked at the firm.

According to the officers, nothing other than the cash register was disturbed. They said Lutz admitted taking the $14. They said he left about $25 in change in the register, probably hoping that the $14 would not be missed.

The accused youth, who will be 19 December 24, is being held for further investigation and filing of charges.

The Pickaway County Common Pleas Court today committed John Wesley Teets, 47, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, to the Lima State Hospital.

Teets was indicted by the September term of the County Grand Jury for second degree murder. He was charged with the shotgun slaying of his wife, Frances, 33, on September 6.

He was committed to the Lima mental institution for the criminal insane for observation after pleading not guilty to the murder count.

He recently was returned from the hospital by County Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff where he was ruled insane by hospital doctors.

ON THE BASIS of the hospital's report, presiding Judge William Ammer committed Teets to the institution until he is adjudged sane by hospital authorities and released.

Upon his release, he will be returned here and proceeded against according to law. Teets' legal counsel is Tom A. Renick.

He was arrested by the Sheriff's Department and bound to the Grand Jury on a charge of first degree murder, which the Grand Jury reduced.

U.S. Economy Now Showing More Bounce

Personal Income Hits All-Time Peak; Auto, Steel Output Booming

NEW YORK (AP)—The American economy showed its bounce this week.

There was ample evidence that it has shaken off the heaviest effects of the long steel strike.

These were major indicators:

1. The Commerce Department reported personal income hit an all-time peak in November.

2. Automobile production soared to a two-year high.

3. Steel output rocketed along at a record rate.

Americans' income climbed to a rate of nearly $35 billion dollars a year. This was a billion dollars higher than the previous peak annual rate attained in prestrike June.

The returning steelworkers' 245-billion-dollar contribution to the income total in November was partially offset by loss of two billions in wages in steel-short industries. But there was a 750-million-dollar increase in unemployment compensation checks and other government payments, and smaller gains in several nonmanufacturing industries, in state and local payrolls, in farm earnings and in income from dividends and interest.

The auto industry produced its production to around 150,000 passenger cars, compared with 85,566 last week. In the corresponding week of 1958 the output was 135,961.

Steel production this week was estimated at a fraction lower than last week's record of 2,732,000 tons. Virtually all steel products are sold out for the first half of 1960.

On the New York Stock Exchange, trading amounted to 16,093,722 shares compared with 17,001,394 the previous week and 18,656,430 a year ago. Bond sales amounted to $33,410,000 par value compared with $36,164,000 last week and $34,850,000 a year ago.

Retail trade gained up to 4 percent over the strong level of last year's Christmas buying.

Members of a Russian delegation inspecting a big chain's clothing distribution plant in New York City were startled at the low retail prices on garment tags. "Is this rigged?" they asked. They were assured the prices had not been adjusted to impress the visitors.

The Department of Agriculture reported crop production this year will match the record output of 1958. It will meet all expected needs and add to surplus supplies, particularly grains, the department said.

Last Civil War Vet Not Getting Any Better

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Aged Confederate veteran Walter Williams remained on the critical list and "he's not going to get any better," a relative said Friday night.

Williams, 117, last surviving veteran of the Civil War, has been under an oxygen tent for almost two weeks suffering from pneumonia. He has been fed intravenously since Dec. 11.

Another American Faces Sentence in Cuban Prison

HAVANA (AP)—Another U.S. citizen faced a long prison sentence for alleged counter-revolutionary activities and two condemned enemies of Fidel Castro's regime were ordered before a firing squad today.

John V. Martino, an ailing Miami, Fla., businessman accused of serving as a link between anti-Castro forces in Cuba and Florida, was handed a 13-year sentence yesterday. The prosecution had asked for a 20-year term.

Martino, 49, joins two other Americans convicted by revived military tribunals within the past months—pilot-Adventurer Frank Austin Young, sentenced to 30 years; and Peter John Lambton of Nassau, Bahamas, given 25 years.

A fourth American, Miami Herald reporter James Buchanan, is being held for trial on charges of aiding Young in his brief escape from a Pinar del Rio prison last week.

Two Americans arrested last week when they came to Havana to join the Caribbean Legion were released Friday night. Military intelligence headquarters said the two—Edwin R. Eckersley, 26, of Portland, Ore., and Monty Mulph, 21, of Eden, Idaho—boarded a plane for Miami. The Legion is a loosely organized group of adventurers with the announced objective of overthrowing dictatorships.

Scheduled for execution today were two former soldiers of ex-President Fulgencio Batista, Luis Lara and Jose Morfi. They were convicted of plotting a military uprising against Prime Minister Castro's government.

Martino was convicted of attempting to smuggle the wife of a former Batista army officer, Col. Esteban Ventura, out of Cuba and of carrying a bond of the White Rose Society, a counter-revolutionary group operating in the United States.

Martino was arrested an hour after his arrival in Havana July 23 and has been under prison hospital treatment since for a kidney stone condition.

New Allied Difficulties Seen in West Berlin Case

PARIS (AP)—New Allied difficulties on Berlin were reported developing today as the Western Big Four assembled for policy talks.

Sources emphasized that the differences have not yet crystallized—especially since the American position has not been worked out. Allied leaders count on at least several months' grace to work out a policy on the divided city before meeting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the summit some time next year.

The United States has raised the question—without taking a specific stand—whether the Allies should be ready, if pushed by Khrushchev, to negotiate a new status for Berlin.

In any case the Americans hold that existing Western rights in West Berlin, surrounded by Communist East German territory, must remain intact.

Britain is known to favor a stopgap deal for Berlin pending a final German peace settlement.

France with fervent West German backing, is resisting any temporary deal. The French argue that any change would jeopardize the Allied rights in Berlin. The French contend that if Khrushchev really wants a political accommodation with the West he will make no trouble over Berlin.

Accordingly they insist that the Allies go no further in offering concessions to Moscow than those put forward at last spring's Geneva conference.

In the unsuccessful Geneva meetings, the Western powers indicated a readiness to cut their Berlin garrisons, to curb propaganda activities in West Berlin if the Reds would do the same in East Berlin, to accept East German control along the routes into the city from West Germany.

Telephone Hog Is Fined $210

MILLBURN, N.J. (AP)—A magistrate has fined a housewife $210 after ruling her guilty of refusing to interrupt her party line telephone conversation to let a doctor make an emergency call.

Magistrate Milton Freiman levied the fine Friday against Mrs. Peter Zelinski. No final action was taken on a codefendant, Jeanette Hausler, of Springfield.

Dr. Marvin Becker testified he tried five times to get the women to hang up Nov. 11 so he could call an ambulance to aid an elderly heart patient. He said the women told him "to go to hell."

They also offered to look at the situation again after five years.

The Soviets stood firm on Khrushchev's original demand that Western troops get out of Berlin, but they dropped Khrushchev's six-month time limit, which already had expired without incident.

Stores Open Next Week

Circleville stores head into the last minute holiday rush Monday. They will be open until 9 p. m. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Stores will close at 6 p. m. Thursday so that employees may enjoy Christmas Eve with their families.

All four Circleville banks have announced they will be closed next Saturday, the day after Christmas.

Chiropractors Freed in Ad Dispute Case

CELINA, Ohio (AP)—Judge Robert L. Harrington has dismissed charges against five chiropractors, accused of advertising themselves to practice a branch of medicine without a license.

In his opinion delivered Friday, Judge Harrington of Van Wert, ruled the Ohio Medical Board was not sufficiently vigorous in prosecuting the case.

The judge said he had seen more about the charges in the press than he had heard in court. Harrington was sitting in the court by assignment.

The opinion acquitted Charles Amato, Oral W. Geros, Herald Miller, all of Celina and John D. Rudd and Alert M. Cochran of Coldwater.

Specifically the charge was "advertising themselves to be practitioners of medicine and surgery in one of its branches to wit, chiropractic, in displaying signs to that effect without having first having received a certificate from the state medical board authorizing them so to do."

Rocky Ends His 'Research' Tour

Presidential Race Decision Awaited

NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has wound up his 5,636-mile six-day tour that took him into seven states. He says he has done all the traveling he is going to do in researching his presidential possibilities.

Rockefeller called the trip "wonderful."

He arrived here by plane Friday night from Miami after a three-hour delay caused by a broken water hose in one of the plane's engines and air traffic congestion in the New York area. He left immediately by car to spend part of the weekend with relatives and friends in Millbrook, N.Y.

Rockefeller told newsmen in Miami that the trip winds up "all the fact-finding I'm going to do by traveling." The governor has indicated that public opinion polls also will influence his decision as to whether he oppose Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the Republican presidential nomination next year.

"I'm neither optimistic nor pessimistic," Rockefeller said when asked whether the trip had shed any light on his national political possibilities. He said he wants to make up his mind before the New York Legislature meets Jan. 5.

He received a warm welcome in Florida, although GOP leaders there overwhelmingly favor Nixon.

Asked if he had been asked to enter the Florida presidential primary, Rockefeller replied: "Well, I haven't been crowded on it."

Besides Florida, Rockefeller visited Indiana, Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Wisconsin and Minnesota. Republican officials were friendly to him in each state—with a few exceptions, he said. He declined to specify the exceptions.

Khrush Keeps Word to Pair From Chicago

CHICAGO (AP)—A Chicago couple was overcome with emotion Friday when they learned an appeal to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev had lifted the Iron Curtain and they soon will be reunited with their two children after 15 years.

Soviet officials in Moscow told the U.S. Embassy the two Lithuanian children, Regina Leonas, 20, and her brother, Thomas, 17, will be sent to Chicago to join their parents some time next month.

Mr. and Mrs. Paulius Leonas, who had made a personal plea to Khrushchev for reunion with their children when he was in Des Moines last Sept. 23, were thrilled.

"I thought we would have to wait longer," said Leonas, 43, a real estate dealer. "This is a big shock, but oh, what a good one."

Mrs. Leonas, 41, was so excited she could hardly talk to a reporter.

The Leonases fled from Lithuania in 1944 to escape Communist oppression. They left the children with Mrs. Leonas' parents, escaped to the British zone in Germany, and lived in England and Canada before coming to Chicago as displaced persons in 1953. They became naturalized citizens last January.

Home Construction To Slow During 1960 Forecast Says

By GEORGE HAMRICK
County Extension Agent,
Agriculture

New home construction is expected to drop off in 1960. The rate of home building is slowed up or slowed down by the easing or tightening of money. Whether or not building matches the 1960 potential market depends largely on credit. With construction wages, land, credit, and material costs higher housing construction will slow up.

There is no evidence of an excess of housing and more demand is coming. If money becomes plentiful an even bigger building boom may hit us in late 1960. Census bureau studies indicate that a yearly increase in the number of families and other households may be more than one million by 1961 while it is less than 700,000 for 1960.

Recent changes in the F. H. A. housing regulations include cuts in downpayments and raised ceilings on mortgages. Minimum downpayments are cut from $650 to $600 on a $15,000 house, from $2,000 to $1,500 on a $20,000 house, and from $3,000 to $2,000 on a $25,000 house. Loans on houses valued at $13,500 or less are not affected.

Prices of clothing will change very little in 1960. If there is a change it will be up. Beginning March 3, 1960, a new law will help us in the selection of fabrics. Under the terms of this new law, the fiber content must be given on almost all fabrics used in wearing apparel.

New fibers are continually being developed. The newest man-made fibers are vycron and zantrel. Many new finishes and yard constructions are being introduced.

Families are spending at an all

Ohio Pork Market Labeled 'Very Slow'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The packing industry states that pork business is very slow and the market depressed, with a poor outlook for improvement, the Department of Agriculture reports.

In its weekly summary of the livestock markets, the department said the adverse publicity received by the poultry industry this week may cause more people to turn to the use of pork to replace poultry in their diet.

Prices paid for market hogs averaged 50 cents lower than last week at $12.35 per 100 pounds.

time high of $41 billion for leisure time products. More than one-third goes for recreation and domestic travel. Radios, television sets, and phonographs take about

$5 billion. Next on the list are gardening equipment, overseas travel, boating, photography, swimming pools, and the increasingly popular hi-fi and stereo components.

Early Pilgrims Suppressed Observance of Christmas

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

Less than a month ago, while preparations for Thanksgiving were at a height, the air was filled with praises for the spiritual qualities of the Pilgrims, who conceived the holiday.

But now with Christmas, one of the two great holy days of Christianity peeping around the corner of the calendar, the pious Pilgrims disappear so thoroughly they might never have existed.

The reason: The Pilgrims of Plymouth, and their brethren, the Puritans of Boston and England, took note of Christmas only long enough to pass laws suppressing it.

The festive Christmas season which could get pretty riotous in England seemed a time of almost pagan revelry to the straight-laced Pilgrims and its religious rites smacked strongly of the Catholicism they abhorred.

Besides, they would argue, no one really knew Jesus' birth date, anyway, so the whole celebration was dubious.

Their first Christmas in the new land, Dec. 25, 1620, was just another work day for the Pilgrims. But Christmas 1621, there were enough newcomers around the colony to protest the austerity. They were recent arrivals aboard the good ship Fortune.

Pilgrim Father William Bradford recalled in his journal:

"On the day called Christmas Day, the Governor called them out to work as was usual. But most of this new company excused themselves and said it went against their consciences to work on that day.

"So the Governor told them that if they made it a matter of conscience, he would spare them until they were better informed; so he led away the rest and left them.

"But when they came home at noon from their work, he found them in the street at play, openly; some pitching the bar, and some at stoolball and such like sports.

"So he went to them and told them that it was against his conscience that they should play and others work.

"If they made the keeping of it matter of devotion, let them keep their houses; but there should be no gaming or reveling in the streets."

"Since which time," Bradford added with obvious satisfaction, "nothing has been attempted that way, at least openly."

Steel Strike Hikes Idleness in Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The steel strike helped boost idleness of Ohio workers to a new high, State Industrial Relations Director Margaret A. Mahoney reported today.

Third quarter work stoppage idleness rose to an estimated 5 1/2 million man-days, she said.

"This is the highest quarterly loss ever recorded by the department and seven times Ohio's idleness of the same period a year ago," the report stated.

Canton and Youngstown were hardest hit by the steel strike. Youngstown lost 24 per cent of its worktime and Canton 11 per cent, figures showed.

Indiana Man Killed At Celina Crossing

CELINA, Ohio (AP)—Frederick H. Black, 33, of Portland, Ind., was killed near here Friday night when the car in which he was riding was struck by a train, officials said. Driver of the car, Alvin Miller, 22, also of Portland, was listed in critical condition at a Lima Hospital. The train crew said the car did not slow when it came to the crossing.

How Weather Looks Today

A ridge of high pressure over the plains states this morning will gradually move eastward to bring fair skies and colder temperatures over the state.

Friday night skies were mostly cloudy as northerly winds moved over Lake Erie. A few light snow flurries occurred in the extreme northeast but no reports of any accumulation have been received.

Tonight will be colder as skies clear and Sunday will be a little warmer with mostly sunny skies.

Temperatures this morning dipped below the freezing mark in most areas with the coldest readings in the northwest section where skies were slowly clearing. Toledo had 22, Marietta 34, Columbus and Cleveland 31.

Toledo Area Man Killed As Fire Sweeps Home

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Fire killed a 46-year-old Springfield Township man Friday and destroyed his one-story frame home on Angola Road, two miles west of here. The victim, Alvin Shaw, died of suffocation, Coroner Paul Hohly ruled. Firemen estimated damage at $7,000 and blamed an overheated heater for the blaze.

Ohio Deer License Total Far Below '58

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Division of Wildlife predicts the total deer permit sales will total almost 27,000 and that deer hunters will bag 2,750 deer. Last year, permit sales were almost 43,000 and 4,400 deer were taken. The estimates are taken from first day reports projected with last year's totals for the same period, the division said.

Lorain Steelworkers Scheduled for Vote

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Steelworkers attending the Local 1104 Christmas party today and Sunday will get a chance to vote on whether to accept steel management's contract proposals. Wives of the 9,000 members also will get a chance to vote. Michael Bushch, Local 1104 president, said Friday he would conduct the balloting and keep a separate tally of the wives' vote. He expects to poll 60 to 70 per cent of the local's membership.

The grayer matter will be viewed as rooms in this temple of ours. We will have to give account of how we care for these rooms in this Christian house.

As we take a tour down the observation hall to see the many rooms of Man's Museum it should cause us to take a better look at how these areas are being filled. After all, the mind grows by what it feeds on.

We will look into the thought room as we study this theme together. Some rooms will be filled with pure thoughts while others will have mostly evil ones. As we tour the affection room it will be easy to tell if your mind is centered mostly on Heavenly affection or on earthly affections.

Paul in writing to Timothy said, "But abide thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them". To keep our minds clean we should abide in those teachings which will increase our understanding of the sacrifice that has been made for us.

Let us be careful how we fill the rooms of the mind. Come and study with us and you will have an inside look at the rooms in your life.

The youth of the church will meet at 6 p. m. to prepare for the candlelight service which will begin at 7 p. m. This service is open

Mother Seton Honored Anew

American Nearing Sainthood Status

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Mother Seton, who is expected to become the first U.S. — born saint of the Roman Catholic Church, Friday was proclaimed "venerable" in Vatican ceremonies attended by Pope John XXIII.

The proclamation, announcing she is worthy of veneration by Roman Catholics, was a preliminary step to beatification, which places one among the church's blessed.

Beatification is frequently—but not always—followed by canonization or elevation to sainthood, the highest honor of the Roman Catholic Church.

Pope John has taken a personal interest in Mother Seton's cause a factor supporting the belief she will be canonized.

Mother Seton was born Elizabeth Ann Seton in New York Aug. 28, 1774. A convert to Catholicism, she founded the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph in America, who adopted the rule of the European order of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul.

She died in Emmitsburg, Md., Jan. 4, 1821.

Today's ceremony came one year to the day after the cause for her beatification was officially proposed.

Attending the ceremony were nine cardinals, including the two new U. S. cardinals, Albert Gregory Meyer and Aloisius Muench, elevated to the purple in ceremonies of the past week. Cardinal Meyer is the Archbishop of Chicago. Cardinal Muench has been bishop of Fargo, N.D., until now.

Francis Cardinal Spellman, archbishop of New York, also was present. So were 15 American bishops and the 280 students of the Pontifical North American College in Rome.

State Sales Tax Agents To Get Pay Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Treasurer Joseph T. Ferguson said today many of his sales tax agents will start receiving higher commissions early next year.

The new rate on stamp sales to retailers will be one per cent on the first $50,000 and 3/4 of one per cent beyond that total.

The current rate is one per cent to $20,000; 3/4 per cent between $20,000 and $100,000 and 1/2 per cent above that amount.

Ferguson estimated the change would increase commissions about $5,000 for each four-week pay period, starting the first week in January. Commissions paid then will be for stamp sales during the pay period ending Dec. 21. There are 13 pay periods annually.

But Ferguson said only about 50 of his 422 agents would benefit by the boost because of their volume sales. Many agents sell the stamps in connection with their business and their commissions are less than $100 a pay period, he explained.

The state treasurer said the change will apply only to his appointees. It will not affect county treasurers, whose one per cent commission on sale of stamps goes to their counties, or to clerks of court whose commissions also go to their counties from the tax on motor vehicle sales for which stamps are not issued.

Santa and the ICE KING
by LUCRECE HUDGINS BEALE

SYNOPSIS: Oonik and Santa have finally found the Ice King, busily grinding out harsh winter storms from his fearful ice castle. When Santa explained that he and Oonik had come as friends, the Ice King stopped his work and suddenly burst into tears.

Chapter Twelve THE ICE KING'S STORY

Oonik marvelled to see the Ice King cry. Even the King's tears were made of ice. They rained from his cheeks and clattered to the floor like hailstones on a roof.

"What is it? What is the matter?" cried Santa in alarm. "Nothing," replied the Ice King kicking away the tears. "It's just that you're the first to ever come here and call himself friend."

Then he told Santa how all his life he had lived alone in his frozen castle where not even a servant would live. How no one ever came to call. How he had no friends and everyone in the whole world hated him because he was Winter itself and brought everyone cold and misery.

"But you are wrong!" protested Santa. "Winter has its proper place. Children love snow and animals love to hibernate and even grownups love to sit before their fires on stormy nights."

The King's face brightened. "Do they really like me?" he asked. "Of course they do," replied Santa.

"But now," went on Santa sternly, "it is August. For four months the world has waited for spring and summer but still you send your ice and snow and frigid winds. That is wrong. Why do you do it?"

"It's because I am so lonely!" burst out the Ice King. "All winter I can keep busy making storms but in summertime there's nothing to do but sit and mope. So this year I decided I would just keep on making winter forever and that way I'll always be busy and happy too."

Santa shook his head sadly. "And so the whole world will freeze and starve."

The Ice King hung his head and walked away. "I thought since they hated me anyway I might as well be really hateful," he mumbled.

Santa took out his pipe and lit it. For a long while he smoked in silence and then he said, "You must get a wife."

"What?" cried the Ice King turning to stare.

"A wife. You must get a wife to love you and care for you and keep you from being lonely or feeling hateful again."

"A wife!" whispered the Ice King and his eyes softened and he began to smile. Then his face clouded over and he burst out bitterly. "Who would ever marry me?"

"There are lonely maidens in the world just as there are lonely men," said Santa. "The trick is to get them together. I have in mind for you a beautiful creature whom

"Who would ever marry me," wailed the lonely Ice King.

"Who?" said the Ice King eagerly.

"The Sun Daughter," said Santa. "She dwells in the East where the sun rises each day." He paused and scratched his head. "Ah," he sighed. "If only I had my reindeer back we could travel there in a single day!"

Oonik, quiet and awe-struck all this time, now tugged at Santa's sleeve.

"I can get the reindeer," he said. Santa shook his head. "No, my boy, I turned them loose, you remember, and they are far away now hunting for the summer food they could not find up here."

"I am a good reindeer hunter," Oonik bragged. "My father taught me well."

"But even your father has not been able to find any reindeer this summer," said Santa.

"I will not find just any reindeer," insisted Oonik, "I will find your reindeer."

"But how can you?" cried Santa, "when I have turned them free?"

"Because," said Oonik with a smile, "they have followed you here, all the way."

Payoff at Bank Doesn't Pay Off

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Crime doesn't pay.

Detective Sgt. Kenneth Williams and Detective W. K. Mortimer were in a branch bank Thursday when two youths entered with their hands full of rolled coins.

They recognized one of the boys, Gareth Rodgers, 19, as a burglary parolee.

"Okay, we know about it," one of the detectives said. "Let's hear your side of the story."

A few minutes later, Rodgers admitted breaking into a gasoline station. He was charged with burglary.

His companion was not implicated in the burglary, but may be charged with receiving stolen property, Williams said.

Glamor Is Not All Beauty

A favorite subject of articles in Sunday supplements is women in their 40s who have been fairly successful at looking as if they might still be in their 20s. Readers are led to believe that their exercises and their diets and so forth are good for their physical health. Certainly the glow of health is a great beautifier and rejuvenator.

Usually no data are provided on the state of their mental health. The battle against middle age is a holding action at best, and as the hated enemy inexorably approaches closer the strain on feminine nerves must be heavy. It is easier, of course, to be one's age.

Many European visitors look upon the American cult of youth-worship with some amazement. Middle-age, they say, can be the best part of a woman's life. Why not relax and enjoy it? But this advice, if it is heard at all, is not heeded amid the clamor of the ads.

If the advertisers know what they are doing, the conclusion is inescapable that a woman's sole aim in life is to acquire the qualities adumbrated by that broadly mysterious work, glamor. And the way to acquire it, according to the advertisers' consensus, is to fake it.

Put on more lipstick, conceal unsightly bulges with girdles, bathe in carbolic acid, brush tusks with ammonia, mold the figure, reduce with pills and potions, anoint with lascivious scents. Glamor—ah!

A mite of paint and perfume and even clothing can make women more attractive. But glamor formerly was a good word and it meant something that cannot be faked. Good health and good muscle tone are part of it. A warm disposition and a sense of humor added will do more for a woman's looks than anything that ever came out of a bottle.

Anyway, looks aren't everything. One pollster reports that men put it well down on the list of qualities they want in a wife. They prefer women who know their way around a home, women who are understanding, kind, easy to get along with.

Would it be outlandish to suggest that these qualities, whether the girls realize it or not, also have something to do with glamor?

Political Fights Welcome

Two contrary forces are at work on public opinion in this country at this moment. One is that there should be unity because the President is abroad and he needs the appearance if not the substance of total national support.

The other is that a great many things have happened during the past 20 or so years and are happening now which are impoverishing this nation during a period which gives the semblance of prosperity.

About much of this, the American people know very little. We have, for instance, been told that we are world leaders, that we have poured out huge sums, variously estimated as between $70,000,000,000 and $100,000,000,000, to take care of all the world. And now we discover that much of our gold reserve has been "ear-marked" by other nations and that we have very little of it left for ourselves.

We discover that Great Britain, West Germany, Japan and other countries are attaining a to them and at the same time, we are asked to put up $4,000,000,000 for foreign aid.

Prof. John K. Galbraith of Harvard, writing in "American Heritage," said:

"The American government works far better—perhaps it only works—when the executive, the business power, and the press are in some degree at odds. Only then can we be sure that abuse or neglect, either private or public, will be given the notoriety that is needed."

Prof. Galbraith might also have included the labor unions which are now so important. As power corrupts, so does complacency and apathy. In a free society, no public official, from the smallest clerk up to the head of the state, should ever feel comfortable that his judgment will not be questioned, his errors exposed and his cupidity made a matter of historical record.

This country developed when the people took an enormous interest in politics, when Presidents were abused and attacked and when the muck-rakers dominated the press and shrieked and shouted against inequities. "Yellow Journalism" safeguarded America from political corruption and economic cupidity. It exposed crooks as well as hypocrites.

In the politeness of these days, of the gentility of our politicians and the courteous attitude of the press, the power of the Executive branch of the government grows out of bounds.

To go back to the Cuban situation, as well as the Panamanian, someone blundered. The American people were informed by their government and by the press that Batista was a bad dictator but that Castro was a democrat. It has turned out that Castro is a worse dictator than Batista was.

The experts in the State Department should have known about Fidel Castro. They should have known that Raul Castro was Moscow-trained. They should have anticipated the confiscation of American property and the peril to American life. They are paid to know details and to conceive correct programs.

A government cannot function if officials act irresponsibly and do not fear the consequences of their errors or their abuse of power. A free people cannot continue free if the conduct of their affairs is secret.

Perhaps the only advantage of a Presidential Election every four years is that an opportunity is provided the people to bring the full weight of public criticism upon government and to "throw the rascals" out, if necessary and possible. When a Presidential Election is nothing more than a popularity contest between two mediocre but forensic individuals, it would be just as satisfactory to nominate Marilyn Monroe and Jayne Mansfield as the candidates for both parties, flip a coin to determine which party takes which female, and let the election go by default.

If no greater intellectual acumen and spiritual elevation appear during the next year than have so far been evident, why not sing some rock-n-roll instead of making campaign speeches which sound no better?

This is not written in mockery; it is a serious protest against the debauching apathy of our people to errors in policy and practice which are costing our people their economic strength and which are obviously demoralizing the next generation.

In such a moment in our history, great figures have appeared who knew only the truth. Have we become so comfortable and so well-off that we have lost our savor for the truth? Why do not those who aspire to be President step forward to speak their minds without fear or favor?

"No, you're NOT going to be paid overtime for this!"

Facts about the Menopause

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.
Call it menopause or climacteric, but don't call it change of life.

While the menopause does, of course, cause certain physical and emotional changes, it is far from being a complete change of life. Women retain their usual reaction to sex long after experiencing the menopause.

The normal sex urges remain and happy marital relations generally can continue for many years.

As a matter of fact, a great many women report improved health after the menopause. Those who have suffered physical or emotional difficulties during their menstrual periods generally welcome the relief.

The menopause itself, however, can be a trying experience for the female sex hormones which the ovaries produce cause certain symptoms such as hot flashes, nervousness and depression.

Not all women experience these symptoms to the same degree. Some, however, become so depressed that simple everyday problems become too much to cope with.

Unfortunately, far too many women simply suffer through it. There is no need for this self-sacrificing attitude today, with all the medical aids we have at hand.

We can usually give a woman medicine containing the ovarian hormone, or chemicals which have a similar action, until the symptoms disappear. In other words, we put back into her body the thing that nature no longer produces.

This treatment generally is prolonged and may last anywhere from a few months to a year or even two. But it usually does the job.

Ordinarily the menopause occurs between the ages of 40 and 50. It begins gradually, the first indication of it being a decrease in the monthly flow.

As soon as you notice this or any symptoms indicating the menopause, consult your doctor. Discuss frankly with him your worries and fears, if any.

He will be able to help you throughout this period.

Don't, however, listen to the advice of relatives and friends. This is a medical problem, and if you want advice about a medical problem, see your doctor.

Question and Answer

Mrs. W. C. McC.: Is there any way to prevent cataract or retard its growth if it has already started?

Answer: No.

FACES REVOLUTION—A weekend revolution broke out in Paraguay against the government of President Gen. Alfredo Stroessner. He became president in 1954 after a series of revolutions, and was re-elected in 1958 to a five-year term.

He's Another Washington, Yuletide Style

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Eight-year-old Eugene Monnier Jr. may have presidential aspirations. Leastways, he's following in G. Washington's fabled footsteps. There's one minor difference: 'Twas an evergreen rather than a cherry tree.

Armed with his trusty ax, Gene was Christmas tree hunting in a fashionable, wooded section of Dayton where he lives. He was unable to distinguish between the forest and a shapely 12-foot tree in a yard a few doors down the avenue.

It takes an 8-year-old quite a few whacks with a boy-size ax to fell a tree with a three-inch trunk, but Gene made it. He was trudging home dragging his prize behind him when Randy Scott, 9, and Larry Scott, 12, laid rightful claim to the tree on grounds it had come from their yard.

Over Gene's protest, the tree began its return trip to the R. L. Scott home. It was several days before the word filtered through the grapevine to Mrs. Monnier, Gene's mother. And it wasn't the Scotts who preached.

Finally confronted by the evidence, Gene ran true to form—he didn't tell a lie.

Now practically everybody's happy. The Monniers paid the Scotts $75 for the damage, the tree is in the Scott livingroom all decorated for the Yuletide and the families agree happily: "We might never have met had it not been for this."

Gene isn't saying much. The $75 is coming out of his allowance.

Cincy Firm's Invention May Cut Electricity Cost

CINCINNATI (AP)—Electric power may be cheaper to make if a new device developed by Avco Corp. can be adapted to commercial production.

The device, result of a 10-year study, substitutes gas flowing through a magnetic field for the usual whirling coils of wire which cut the magnetic field to produce electricity in today's generators.

Full name of the gadget is magnetohydrodynamic generator, which usually is shortened to MHD generator.

If feasible on a large scale, Avco's laboratory experiment may eliminate steam turbines which spin the armature coils of conventional generators.

The new generator is expected to operate at a thermal efficiency near 55 per cent. The best modern plants can do about 40 per cent.

The MHD generator works on this principle:

Any substance that's a conductor of electricity, and which moves through a magnetic field, will induce a current of electricity.

But normal gases will not conduct electricity, because the atoms of the gas are balanced—the negative charge of electrons spinning around the nucleus are cancelled by the positive nucleus.

To create a "plasma," the electrons must be stripped from the nucleus in some way. The gas is then called "ionized" and the negative and positive particles will conduct electricity.

Avco drew on research in developing nose cones to solve the major obstacle to using plasmas. Great heat—about 5,000 degrees—is needed to ionize a gas.

Most materials today cannot stand this temperature. But nose cone work gave them the material needed.

Avco's laboratory model can develop enough electricity to power nearly 300 light bulbs. The company has a contract with a group of 10 power companies to build big models to check on economy of operation on a commercial scale.

The MHD generator consists of a stream of plasma surging through a magnetic field set up by coils of wire around the stream.

Electrodes at the edges of the stream take off the electricity created in the plasma as it zips through the field. A heat-resistant cone funnels the plasma through the magnetic field.

Work with plasma, called the fourth state of matter—the other three are solid, liquid and gas—is still relatively new.

Russia Superior To U.S. in Filing Foreign Documents

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Soviet system of abstracting and translating foreign medical and scientific articles is far superior to the American system, says a prominent surgeon.

Dr. Charles C. Higgins, chairman of the American College of Surgeons' board of governors and head of the urology department at Cleveland Clinic, toured Russia last summer.

Speaking to a group of businessmen Thursday he said the Soviet's Institute of Scientific Information publishes annually 35 to 40 volumes containing 450,000 abstracts and translations of scientific writing from 80 countries.

Dr. Higgins added: "They are completely familiar with scientific progress around the world. We are not. We receive about 20,000 foreign scientific articles a year but they are not translated and they gather dust in Washington."

Wise Men travelled a desert to lay their gifts before a King.
But the King was a mere babe. His court was a cattle shed;
His princely garb swaddling bands.
Could they be certain when they knelt by the manger that this was the end of the quest?
Their certainty came not of proof but of faith. They had marveled at the heavens . . . followed a gleaming star . . . listened to prophecy. For Wise Men this was enough!

And through the centuries others have sought the King. Eagerly, earnestly they have come into the reverent beauty of the Church. And there, as ageless Words cast their light in man's darkness, they have known the end of their quest.

Serve Family Favorites For the Holiday Season

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Holidays are the time when Grandma's recipes are in demand. It's a good reason why one recipe collection is getting attention.

It's "The All-New Fanny Farmer Boston Cooking School Cookbook."

A valuable guide that tells how to cook everything from basic dishes to extra - specialties, it first appeared in 1896, when women's place was definitely in the kitchen. Even then, it was revolutionary!

No publisher would believe women would buy a cookbook, so Fanny Farmer paid for the first printing herself. Thus a perennial best-seller was born.

Pioneer in the cause of good food, Fanny Farmer triumphed over odds that might have stumped others, making a woman's career in a man's world. And this, despite the fact that a crippling girlhood disease made it necessary for her to travel, talk, taste and write from a wheelchair.

Now, 63 years later, her book, updated for an age of convenience foods and career women, remains a valued guide for today's homemaker.

Perhaps its enduring charm and value is the fact that, since Miss Farmer's death in 1915 it has been a family affair, now edited by her niece, Wilma Lord Perkins.

In this newest revision, Mrs. Perkins has modernized method, content and format, placing emphasis on recipes that use frozen, canned and prepared foods creatively.

ter than ever, as custom - cooked for today's homemaker as it was for Mrs. America of 1896.

From this new volume, with its old-fashioned charm and modern know-how, come the following recipes for holiday entertaining — Salad Sandwich Loaf, perfect for ladies' luncheons, and Orange Puff, a creamy dessert.

Salad Sandwich Loaf: Prepare 3 c. chicken, tuna, salmon or mixed vegetable salad.

Remove crust from 1 small loaf firm bread, unsliced. Cut in 4 slices lengthwise. Spread 2 slices on one side (for top and bottom) and 2 slices on both sides (for middle layers) with creamed butter or mayonnaise.

On three slices, put layer of lettuce, cut small.

Spread salad on lettuce. Put layers together. Top with fourth slice, buttered side down.

Set a weight (pan or platter) on top to press loaf firmly together. Mash $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. cream cheese with enough mayonnaise or cream to spread easily. Spread top and sides of loaf evenly. Garnish and chill.

To serve, cut in 1 in. slices. Serves 6.

Orange Puff: Melt 3 tbsp. butter. Stir in $\frac{1}{4}$ c. flour. Blend well. Gradually add 1 c. milk. Bring to boil, stirring constantly; remove from heat.

Separate 4 eggs. Beat whites until stiff. Beat in 4 tbsp. sugar. Set aside.

Without washing beater, beat 4 yolks until thick with 4 tbsp. sugar, 1 tsp. orange juice or frozen orange concentrate, 1 tsp. grated orange rind.

Add to hot mixture. Fold in whites. Steam 35 min.

For topping, beat 3 egg whites until stiff. Beat in gradually 1 c. powdered sugar. Blend in juice and rind 2 oranges and juice 1 lemon. Spoon over pudding before serving. Serves 6.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

You Are to Blame, Mother

DEAR ABBY: My 15-year-old son has been going steady with a 13-year-old girl since last May. He practically lives at her apartment. Her mother is home but that doesn't make any difference. They still lay on her bed listening to records with the door shut. I saw it myself when I walked over there at 11 p. m. to tell him to come home. They have sat on our front steps in broad daylight with her crawling all over him and running her fingers through his hair and around his ears. It made me sick.

When I talk to him he hums and tells me to save my breath. His school called and said they are ready to throw him out because he cuts classes to go to her school and walk her home. I am half out of my mind with this problem. How does a mother handle a son who is bigger than she is when his father is dead?

HEARTSICK MOTHER

DEAR HEARTSICK: You are desperately searching for the fire hose after the house is in ashes. You didn't wake up one morning to find your 15-year-old son "out of control." He got out of control by inches. And you gave in an inch at a time. A 15-year-old boy who is all wrapped up in a 13-year-old girl, has no respect for his mother and defies the rules at school is a sitting duck for double trouble. If it isn't too late for a clergyman or an understanding teacher to straighten out this boy, the Law will do it eventually—the hard way.

DEAR ABBY: Here is my story and every word of it is true: Eight years ago I married a man who said he loved me so much he couldn't live without me. From the day I married him I have worked like a dog both at home and on split-shift waiting tables. He makes good money himself, but I have yet to see the first quarter. All these years he has never taken me on a vacation. But he goes himself every summer for three weeks. He has bought himself hunting guns, fishing tackle, and an outboard motor for cash. But he owes me $1100. I buy all my own clothes, pay my own doctor bills, insurance and automobile. It looks like I married him for the privilege of sleeping with him. Is it worth it?

DEAR FRANCES: I don't know. Is it?

DEAR ABBY: I was born a third degree breach case and everything has been backwards for me ever since.

I had to quit school at 16 to

Tiger Bid Is Sidetracked
By McClain in 39-37 Tilt

Circleville's bid for first place in the South Central Ohio League suffered a temporary setback last night at Greenfield in a weird and hectic game. Greenfield moved into undisputed first place in the SCO by handing the locals a meagre 39-37 defeat after leading by 15 points at one time in the game. Circleville, jinxed most of the way, failed to get a bucket in the first quarter. The Tigers fired seven times in the opening canto, but failed to connect. Their first basket came with about four minutes gone in the second quarter. Greenfield didn't do much better, getting only six, points in the frustrating first quarter. Both teams fired wildly and were seiged with turnovers. AS it turned out, the last quarter provided more action and thrills than the other three periods added together. Trailing 31-24 going into the finale, the Tigers suddenly found the recipe to get going. A spirited comeback saw the Red and Black close the gap to 36-35 with about 1:15 remaining. With 20 seconds left, Bob Shadley hit a jump shot to make the score read, 38-37, in favor of Greenfield. Greenfield's Pete Coleman added a foul shot with 15 seconds remaining, but Circleville got another chance when Dave Hicks was fouled with four seconds to go. The courageous CHS guard had a one-and-one situation, but he missed his first attempt and the

Paint Valley
Tops Bulldogs
In Overtime

Centralia nearly pulled the upset of the Ross County League last night before losing to invading Paint Valley, 45-43, in an overtime. The Bulldogs trailed at the end of the first quarter, 14-13, but went ahead, 27-22, at halftime. Paint Valley rallied in the third period for a 36-36 deadlock. Each team scored five points in the final quarter, playing possession type ball throughout the contest. The Bulldogs shot just 26 times, notching 13 for .500 per cent. Paint Valley attempted 38 field goals, connecting on 15 for .396 per cent. Centralia coach, Dick Smith, was content to try and win the game at the foul line, because PV started a team that averaged 6'3". THE BULLDOGS' Sonny Harrison captured scoring honors with 21 points, hitting seven of 13 field goal attempts for .535 per cent, and notching seven of nine foul shots for .775 per cent. Thompson was high man for PV with 12 points and its 6' 7" center, Wiley, had eight markers. Led by Bruce Copeland, Don Ault and Tom Haynes, Centralia out-rebounded Paint Valley. The only real dent PV was able to put in the Bulldog armor was its effective fast break when it could be utilized. The Bulldogs stand 4-4 on the season and 1-2 in league play. Its reserve unit dropped its first 1959-60 contest, 43-18, as PV outclassed the peppy Bulldogs. They stand 7-1 on the year. Unknown Cuban
Defeats Scott

NEW YORK (AP)—What a difference just one fight can make! Friday afternoon Cuba's Benny (Kid) Paret was a so-so fighter hoping to make good against Charley Scott, the top-ranked welterweight contender, in order to get a few more paydays in the ring. Friday night, following his decisive upset decision over the 3-1 favored Scott in the television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden, Paret was hollering for a shot at welterweight champion Don Jordan. Scott, a 23-year-old Philadelphia, had won six straight and was clamoring for a shot at Jordan. Now he's hoping to get a return fight with the unranked, 22-year-old Cuban. game was all but over. Circleville suffered early when Jake Bailey committed his third personal foul before the first quarter was half gone. He was forced to sidelines for most of the remainder of the game until fouling out early in the final episode. To make matters worse, Larry Hannahs was charged with his fourth and fifth personals early in the third canto. Sam Weller and Jimmie Wellington came on as replacements to play a big part in Circleville's desperate last quarter counter-attack. GREENFIELD, blessed with plenty of size and speed, upped its SCOL record to three wins and no losses. Circleville tasted its first league defeat in three starts to fall behind 3-1 Wilmington. No matter how hard they tried, the Tigers couldn't buy a bucket in the opening quarter. Shadley, Hicks and Linden Gibson hit a foul toss each and that was all. For Greenfield, Bill Harewood and Roger Grooms connected on jump shots and Lee Morehead and Dick Craft potted foul throws to make the official scorers' job an easy one. Action picked up a little in the second quarter as Greenfield went on a spree for 14 points. Circleville remained in the doldrums with 11 tallies and a 25-14 deficit. The Tiger task looked hopeless in the third quarter as Hannahs fouled out and Bailey walked on thin ice with four personals. Greenfield took advantage of the situation to run up a 31-16 margin before the Tigers could regroup for running room. The Roundtowners suddenly got a new lease on life midway in the third stanza when Shadley netted two straight buckets and Gibson collaborated for a fielder and a foul to cut the hosts' lead to 31-23. A BUSHEL of thrills was in store the last quarter. Shadley, Gibson and Weller combined forces to give the Tigers their most potent scoring punch of any time in the game. Greenfield, taxed to the limit after Grooms and Craft fouled out, picked up its last eight points at the foul line. Coleman was the villain as far as Circleville was concerned. The speedy McClain guard netted five charities in a row, all of them vitally needed. Harewood tossed in two more bonus throws with 1:15 left and Coleman then cleaned up with a solitary one-point. Circleville's spirited rally dimmed when Hicks' first foul toss hit the rim a fraction of an inch

Scioto Drops
Pirates, 78-60

Highlighted by the close-in shooting of Phil Hoover, the Scioto Buffaloes won their first Pickaway County League contest last night over invading Pickaway, 78-60. The surprise scoring threat in the form of Hoover helped Scioto overcome a Pirate lead in the third quarter. It was Scioto's second win in six outings. Hoover tickled the nets for 30 points from under the bucket and picked off 30 rebounds to completely dominate play of both teams. Dick Kaiser followed his teammates in the scoring column with 18 points from the corner. Ralph England and Norman Wilson were top men for the Pirates with 16 points apiece. England hit from in close and Wilson pecked away from out front. THE BATTLING Buffaloes became torrid in the last five minutes to down a Pirate aggregation that help leads of 21-17 at the end of the first period and 53-33 at intermission. Both teams used zone defenses with Pickaway going into a press the last four minutes to no avail. It was Pickaway's sixth loss against a lone win over Jackson, 46-41. The Pirates managed a consolation game win by downing Scioto's reserves, 53-33. The Pirates' junior varsity holds a 5-2 slate, compared to Joe Corbett's charges' 1-5 record. Ashville Posts Win No. 7
In Topping Atlanta, 74-51

The roughriding Ashville Broncos trampled host Atlanta last night, 74-51, to retain a Pickaway County League tie with Walnut and Darby. The Broncos ran into more difficulty than expected as the stubborn Red Raiders just wouldn't give up, battling Ashville toe-to-toe under the bankboards. Ashville's dazzling Bobby Hoover tallied 20 points to lead the scoring parade. He was spectacular in ball handling and passing off to teammates. Tom Rathburn followed in the scoring with 17 markers and Dale Fout notched 10. Ronnie Morris led his Atlanta teammates with 14 points, followed by Yates' 13 and Tommy Oyer's 11. ASHVILLE took a 19-10 first quarter lead and stretched it to 32-18 at intermission. Holding a 56-29 third period lead, the Broncos still couldn't ease up as Atlanta kept nipping away at the score. This was Ashville's seventh straight win against no defeats. Atlanta fell to its sixth loss in nine starts. The Broncos wrapped up the junior varsity game, 44-30, for their fourth victory against three de-

Walnut maintained a share of the Pickaway County League leadership with Ashville and Darby by topping host Saltcreek last night, 53-35. The Tigers got started in the second period after trailing 14-12 at the first quarter mark. Walnut led at halftime, 26-19. The Warriors couldn't keep up after intermission, falling behind, 36-25, at the third period mark. Walnut's Tom Harber led all scorers with 21 points on hooks, drives and jump shots. The Tigers moved the ball well and its controlling of the defensive bankboard was the deciding factor. Boyd Boone played a fine defensive game, holding Saltcreek's ace scorer, Denny Valentine, to nine points, well off his 16-point average. ROGER CLARKE started the Warriors off in fine style with eight points in the initial quarter, the only points he garnered the entire game. Walnut increased its record to 4-2 and 3-0 in league play to tie with Ashville and Darby. The Warriors took the reserve encounter, 45-37, to hand Walnut its sixth straight loss. Darby Pounds
Jackson Five

Darby missed the 100-mark by just four points as it blasted invading Jackson last night, 96-55, in a Pickaway County League test. The Trojans were invincible as Tommy Walters drove for 33 points and Tommy Liff set shot for 22 markers. Darby was just too much for Jackson as it drove to a 29-10 first period lead and never let up. Coach Paul Hoskins attempted to zone Darby in the first half, but Darby's front trio screened for the Tommy twins, and the Trojans were off to their fourth win against two losses. Darby used its second string in the third period, running in its varsity and substituting freely in the fourth stanza against Jackson's man-to-man defense. A total of 41 fouls were called—20 against Jackson and 21 against Darby. DARB, shooting a phenomenal .547, from the field, played its best game of the season. Jackson was led by Gary Thompson's 19 points and Larry Eitel's 14. Jackson took the consolation affair, 42-24. Its reserve record is now 3-4, compared to the varsity's 2-4 slate. Kingston
Wins Sixth
Cage Battle

A talented and steady scoring Kingston finally downed a perennial jinx last night. The Redskins toppled host Huntington, 67-52. Kingston wasted no time in establishing the brand of play and superiority in the contest as it took an 23-8 first quarter lead and a 41-20 halftime margin, connecting on 17 of 34 field goals. Settling down in the final two periods, the Redskins contained the Huntsmen for their sixth win against two losses. Danny Vollmar, hitting on drives and outside jump shots, and Bill Carmean scoring from underneath, tallied 21 and 20 points respectively. HUNTINGTON'S ace scorer, Atwood, was held scoreless in the first half, but found the range for 16 markers in the second half. Cox and Bethel tallied 10 each for the Huntsmen. The Redskins grabbed 46 rebounds as Carmean and Roy Congrove controlled both bankboards. Kingston hit .455 from the field and .807 from the free throw line. Huntington fared worse with .306 from the floor and .320 per cent from the charity line. A total of 36 fouls were committed—15 by Kingston and 21 by Huntington. While the Huntsmen were dropping to a 1-2 league slate, Kingston swelled its record to 2-1. Huntington is 4-4 overall. Huntington garnered the reserve victory, 45-42. It was Kingston's third loss against five wins. 1-1-3: Vollmar 8-5-21; Carmean 8-4-20; Congrove 4-4-12; Targee 1-0-2; Kempko 0-1-1; Totals 25-17-67. Huntington — Atwood 5-6-16; R. Stoutsville
Drops 1st Game
To Bremen, 47-45

The Bremen Oilers dropped invading Stoutsville to its first defeat of the year last night, 47-45. The Indians knew they were in trouble from the start, as Bremen maintained advantages of 11-7 at the end of the first quarter and 26-25 at halftime. Stoutsville finally surged ahead at the third period mark, 34-33, but fell behind once more, and with less than 25 seconds to go, missed two straight lay-ups to lose its first contest in Fairfield County League. The Indians started with a man-to-man defense to concentrate on halting the deadly shooting of Bremen's guards. In the meantime, the Oilers' tall center, Boch, was damaging Stoutsville from around the bucket. THE INDIANS resolved to use a pressing zone defense throughout the final two quarters. High man for the evening was Bremen's Vanatta with 15 points. He was trailed by teammate, Harmon, and Stoutsville's Richard Bussert with 14 points each. Bremen's Boch had 12 and the Indians' Jimmy Anderson notched 12 points. A total of 21 personal fouls were called, 10 on Stoutsville and 11 on Bremen. The Oilers are now 3-1 in league play to hold a first-place tie with Stoutsville and Pickerington. Williamsport Wins
7th; Tops Monroe

For three quarters last night the Monroe Indians matched host Williamsport for seemingly impossible shot for shot until the Deers won at the foul line in the final period, 64-52. The Indians maintained a 14-12 first stanza lead and maintained its two-point margin at intermission, 29-27. The Deers edged ahead at the three-quarter mark, 44-43, and then the roof fell in on the Indians as Williamsport tallied six free throws in a row to wrap up its seventh win against three losses. The Indians certainly didn't look like a team with a 1-7 record coming into last night's encounter. They led the heavily favored Deers from the start, but never by more than four points. BOTH TEAMS played an unusual type of basketball. The Deers' Myers flipped in as many under-handed shots as two-handed sets, and Monroe's Larry Bigam connected on dazzling back-handed flips from all over the court. Bigam led Monroe to its first quarter lead as his teammates used a successful collapsing zone to effectively halt the tremendous scoring of the county leader Myers (28.3). Bigam chalked up eight points and Steve Fullen added three. Donny Steinhauer and Reed Anderson notched four apiece to keep Williamsport in the game. The Bigam brothers, Larry and Jeff, along with Fullen, dominated play during the second quarter until the latter minutes when David Humphrey took over for Deercreek. The stocky 217-lb. senior guard entered the contest for the first time, and sizzled the nets for three straight buckets from 25 to 30 feet out for his only points of the evening. The much-smaller Indians were out-rebounded during the entire contest by Myers and Kenny Stark, but Monroe never gave up. A total of 29 personal fouls were called—16 on Monroe and 13 on Williamsport. WILLIAMSPORT could never get going during the first half and the Deers were unable to get the ball into Myers. The second half took on another complexion as Myers found room, moving to the corner and out from underneath the bucket. He rolled for 11 points in the third period followed by Anderson's six markers from the outside. Larry Bigam racked the nets for four points and Fullen tallied six. Through the first three periods, the lead exchanged hands 12 times and was tied nine times. Monroe started rebounding and pressing in the final stanza, only to foul and lose its eighth contest against one victory. On the basis of six consecutive throws, Williamsport took a 52-45 lead, before Porter tallied a free throw and Bigam grabbed a two-

To Be Distributed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 244 million dollar distribution of liquor license money will be made Monday to 798 municipalities and townships having taverns, State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported today. The fourth quarter distribution will boost the total from that source to local governments to $8,790,743 during the year, some $119,326 more than a year ago, the report said.

Martin Denies 'Feud' with Indian Chief

CINCINNATI (AP)—Billy Martin, a major leaguer for 10 seasons and five World Series, says that was not a feud he had at Cleveland with manager Joe Gordon.

It's just that they didn't talk to each other much.

Martin, veteran American League second baseman, came to Cincinnati in a trade Tuesday. Friday he came to town to sign up for 1960—first Redleg under contract.

He said he seldom talked to Gordon "because he seldom talked to me."

"But I knew he talked about me because everytime I'd read a newspaper in Cleveland, Gordon was quoted as having said that 'Martin can't make the double play' or Martin can't do this, or that, like someone else."

"I'd have appreciated it had he come to me and suggested 'Billy why not this or that.' But no, I always had to read about it."

"It got so bad that I began thinking that maybe I was as bad as they were now saying and really it was disturbing."

Martin added: "After all this stuff about my second basing in Cleveland, my wife went to the record books and found out that while Gordon was a second baseman for 12 years, he made 258 errors, and me in 10 years made 79."

Dad, Son Bail Each Other Out

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Any good father would have done the same, but pop almost got the raw side of this deal.

Paul Honshell went to the City Jail Thursday to bail out his son, arrested on a traffic charge. As Paul Jr. walked free, Paul Sr. was hustled into the vacated cell. It seems the elder Honshell owed the city a fine for speeding.

Father and son loyalty did triumph, however. Paul Jr. rustled up some more bail money and returned to free his father.

Remains of Man Found In Rural Greene County

XENIA, Ohio (AP)—The badly decomposed remains of a man found Friday by a hunter near Huffman Dam are being investigated by Greene County authorities. The victim apparently had been dead about five years officials said. John Myers of Dayton found the body.

Buckeyes Crush Butler '5' Again

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — With sophomore Jerry Lucas launching the attack Ohio State won its sixth straight basketball triumph by swamping Butler 96-68 here Friday night.

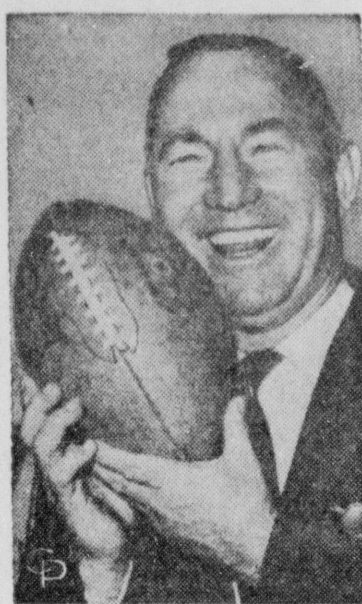

Lucas opened the Bucks' drive with one basket close in, added another from farther out and from then on the Bulldogs were in the dog house.

Butler, now 3-3, was dumped 12 days ago by the Ohio cagers, 99-66.

The 6-foot-8 Lucas won high point honors of the night with 20 points, six under his average. Fifteen of the marks were made in the first half.

Identical Twins Send Identical Yule Cards

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Maxine Ruffini was astonished by the Christmas card she received this week from Mrs. Mildred Edwards, an identical twin living some 2,000 miles away in Whittier, Calif. The postman brought the card, says Mrs. Ruffini, just as she was leaving to mail a card to her twin. The card turned out to be an identical twin to the one she was sending her sister.

REASON TO SMILE—Fired from his head coaching job at the University of Pennsylvania a few days ago after having a winning season, Steve Sebo has been named general manager of the new American Football league. Reports indicate Sebo's salary will be $25,000, believed to be about twice what he got at Penn.
